Introduction

Studying Economics at Liverpool will enable you to build a thorough understanding of current economic and financial issues. Our programme will help you develop a high level quantitative and analytical skills in any of our pathways: Economics, Finance or Data and Econometrics.

From your first year of study you will start to build a strong foundation in economics, statistics and mathematics and upon successful completion of your final year you will have a thorough understanding of a wide range of theoretical tools used in economics and where applicable, in finance.

What you'll learn

- Develop economic thought
- Gain professional skills and employment preparation
- Understand economic and business statistics
- Mathematical economics
- Financial risk management
- Principles of microeconomics and macroeconomics
- Econometrics
- Financial accounting

Accreditation

The University of Liverpool Management School holds accreditation from AACSB, AMBA and EQUIS. This makes it one of an elite group of institutions worldwide to hold the gold standard triple accreditation.

Our Economics course is accredited by the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales \(ICAEW\), the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants \(ACCA\) and the Chartered Institute of Management Accountants \(CIMA\).

Accreditation in detail

ACCA

In aligning our Accounting and Finance programme with the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants \(ACCA\), our students are eligible for exemptions from specific ACCA exams up to the Strategic Professional Level papers. This will fast-track their journey to membership once they graduate – so they can start their careers in finance and accountancy more quickly.

CIMA

This programme is accredited by Chartered Institute of Management Accountants \(CIMA\) which will give you further skills and understanding on how businesses operate, are managed, how to create strategies and how people work together.

ICAEW

The Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales \(ICAEW\) works with the University of Liverpool to grant credit for prior learning (also known as exemptions) for relevant content covered in undergraduate and postgraduate degrees.

Once you have finished your degree you will only have to complete any outstanding modules, the compulsory practical work experience element of the ACA and demonstrate your ethical and professional development, to qualify as an ICAEW Chartered Accountant.

Combined degree

Choosing this subject as a combined degree

A Joint (50%) Economics programme as a combined degree provides a balance of the basic principles of economics with your other chosen subject with your modules split 50/50 between the two.

Please note you cannot trade up to Major or Single Honours when applying for Economics as part of a joint course.

Teaching and assessment

How you'll learn

Modules are taught using the latest active learning techniques including business simulations, real-world case studies, social media, interactive participation software, lecture capture and real-time financial and business data using our Bloomberg Trading Floor. The principal forms of teaching are lectures and seminars with lectures normally being supported by material such as hand-outs and presentations.

Seminars give the opportunity for detailed discussion of a topic under the direction of a tutor. You are normally expected to prepare work in advance for seminars and may be expected to present work or give presentations from time to time. On some modules, such as quantitative techniques and IT, seminars may take the form of practical sessions using our PC suites.

All our degrees depend on you spending a good part of the week in private or group study in preparation for lectures and seminars. This involves making extensive use of the excellent library and IT facilities, just one minute's walk away from the Management School.

How you're assessed

You will be assessed through a combination of coursework and examinations. The exact weighting will vary from one module to another. As well as individual assignments and exams, you may also be assessed on group reports and presentations.

Liverpool Learning Framework

At Liverpool, we take a distinctive approach to education through the Liverpool Learning Framework. This means teaching that is engaging, inclusive and designed to help you succeed during your studies and beyond.

You'll develop specialist subject knowledge alongside the skills employers value most, including:

- Digital fluency
- Confidence
- Global citizenship

Our curriculum is characterised by the three Liverpool Hallmarks:

- Research-connected teaching – learning informed by the latest ideas and discoveries
- Active learning – taking part, applying knowledge and learning by doing
- Authentic assessment – assessments designed around real-world tasks and challenges

We also embed key priorities across our curriculum, including AI literacy, employability, and sustainability, helping you prepare for the future and make a positive impact in the world.

We're committed to creating a supportive and inclusive learning environment where every student can thrive.

Careers and employability

Studying Economics at the Management School will provide you with the skills to work in finance, accountancy and government administration.

You will be encouraged to undertake a Year in Industry as part of the four-year sandwich degree programme.

Recent employers for the previously mentioned professions include:

- BDO
- Capita
- HRMC
- IW Capital
- KPMG.

You can also explore taught postgraduate opportunities in our management school including:

- MSc Economics
- MSc Accounting and Finance
- MSc Project Management.
