About this course

Our International Management programme is designed to help you navigate through the complexity of the subject and will enable you to understand the benefits and challenges of globalisation for local communities.

Introduction

Our International Management programme has an internationally focused curriculum, helping you to analyse, understand and act on the global challenges and opportunities. By final year, you will have developed a sound understanding of many topics such as the functional elements of international business and management, knowledge of the global economic environment, the main ethical problems facing international organisations plus the ability to critique critical issues in the subject.

During your time at Liverpool, we plan to go on a field trip to a European city to experience and analyse first-hand another country's economy. You also have the opportunity to study a language. Students can discuss their options with the Open Languages team who will ensure you are on the right level of study.

What you'll learn

- Fundamentals of marketing
  - Introduction to accounting and finance
  - Management theory
  - Corporate social responsibility (CSR)
  - International development in the global economy
  - Identify key issues in international business
  - Global strategic management
  - Explore the business environment in emerging markets

Accreditation

The University of Liverpool Management School holds accreditation from AACSB, AMBA and EQUIS. This makes it one of an elite group of institutions worldwide to hold the gold standard triple accreditation.

Accreditation in detail

CIMA

This programme is accredited by Chartered Institute of Management Accountants \(CIMA\) which will give you further skills and understanding on how businesses operate, are managed, how to create strategies and how people work together.

Teaching and assessment

How you'll learn

Modules are taught using the latest active learning techniques including business simulations, real-world case studies, social media, interactive participation software, lecture capture and real-time financial and business data using our Bloomberg Trading Floor. The principal forms of teaching are lectures and seminars with lectures normally being supported by material such as hand-outs and presentations.

Seminars give the opportunity for detailed discussion of a topic under the direction of a tutor. You are normally expected to prepare work in advance for seminars and may be expected to present work or give presentations from time to time. On some modules, such as quantitative techniques and IT, seminars may take the form of practical sessions using our PC suites.

All our degrees depend on you spending a good part of the week in private or group study in preparation for lectures and seminars. This involves making extensive use of the excellent library and IT facilities, just one minute's walk away from the Management School.

How you're assessed

You will be assessed through a combination of coursework and examinations. The exact weighting will vary from one module to another. As well as individual assignments and exams, you may also be assessed on group reports and presentations.

Liverpool Learning Framework

At Liverpool, we take a distinctive approach to education through the Liverpool Learning Framework. This means teaching that is engaging, inclusive and designed to help you succeed during your studies and beyond.

You'll develop specialist subject knowledge alongside the skills employers value most, including:

- Digital fluency
- Confidence
- Global citizenship

Our curriculum is characterised by the three Liverpool Hallmarks:

- Research-connected teaching – learning informed by the latest ideas and discoveries
- Active learning – taking part, applying knowledge and learning by doing
- Authentic assessment – assessments designed around real-world tasks and challenges

We also embed key priorities across our curriculum, including AI literacy, employability, and sustainability, helping you prepare for the future and make a positive impact in the world.

We're committed to creating a supportive and inclusive learning environment where every student can thrive.
