

ORDINANCE 59: Degree of Doctor of Clinical Psychology

1. The University may award the degree of Doctor of Clinical Psychology (DClinPsychol) to students who have pursued an approved programme of studies, including clinical work/placements, over a period of three calendar years, as set out in the programme specification for the degree, to the satisfaction of the Board of Examiners. The programme specification shall set out the aims, learning outcomes, structure, assessment and re-assessment requirements of the programme. The majority of the DClinPsychol programme, including the thesis, shall be at doctoral level (FHEQ level 8), as defined in the PGR Code of Practice.
2. Candidates for the degree of DClinPsychol shall, before entry upon the degree programme, have obtained entrance qualifications of a type and standard deemed appropriate by the University.
3. Subject to any overriding considerations of patient safety in relation to clinical assessments, the Board of Examiners shall be empowered to take account of mitigating circumstances affecting students' performance in determining the conditions relating to re-assessments in the pre-thesis stage of the DClinPsychol programme, in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Practice on Assessment and the Mitigating Circumstances Policy.
4. The maximum period for which a student may be registered for the degree of DClinPsychol, including any periods of suspension of studies, shall be five years.
