

Francophone Caribbean Literature and Translation

- Thursday 30 September 2010, 2.30pm, University of Birmingham
- Guadeloupean author Maryse Condé and her translator Richard Philcox
- The event will take place in the Muirhead Tower in Main Lecture Theatre G15.

Programme

2.30 pm An Introduction to Maryse Condé, grande dame of Caribbean literature - Dr Louise Hardwick, University of Birmingham

2.45 pm G. V. Banks Memorial Lecture (in French)

Maryse Condé, 'Itinéraire d'un écrivain caribéen' - Maryse Condé will discuss her award-winning literary career, which has taken her to Africa, France and the US

3.45 pm Light refreshments (tea, coffee, biscuits) in Ashley Foyer

4pm - 5.30 pm Mireille Best Memorial Lecture (in English)

Richard Philcox, 'Translation Workshop: Translating Maryse Condé and Frantz Fanon'

5.30 - 6pm Questions, comments and general discussion

6pm Close

This event is organised by Dr Louise Hardwick through the University of Birmingham FRANCOPOCO \(Francophone Colonial and Postcolonial\) Network. Find us by Googling FRANCOPOCO for full details. <http://www.french.bham.ac.uk/research/francopoco/index.shtml>

This event also forms part of the Postcolonial Birmingham initiative, a programme of interdisciplinary events supported by the University of Birmingham Conflict & Security Studies Network.

This event is sponsored by the G. V. Banks Memorial Fund, the Mireille Best Memorial Fund, the School of Languages, Cultures, Art History and Music, and the University of Birmingham Research and Knowledge Transfer Fund.