Eighteenth-Century Worlds Past Events and Activities 2014-15

Thursday, 5th – Saturday 7th June 2014 – University of Liverpool Campus

Materiality of Writing Workshop

Friday 14th- Saturday 15th November 2014 – School of the Arts Library

Edward Rushton and Romantic Liverpool: A Bicentennial Conference
Speakers: Professor John Oldfield (University of Hull), Professor John Whale (University of Leeds), Professor Lilla Maria Crisafulli (Università degli Studi di Bologna), and Professor Paul Baines (University of Liverpool).

Thursday, 4th June 2015 – Liverpool Athenaeum

Annual ECW Athenaeum Lecture, delivered by Professor Markman Ellis (Queen Mary University of London)

Friday, 5th June 2015 – University of Liverpool Campus

Coffee, Tea and Chocolate PGR / ECR Workshop
Eighteenth-Century Worlds Past Events and Activities 2015-16

Wednesday, 28th October 2015 - University of Liverpool Campus
Dr Hilary Brown (University of Birmingham) - Women, Translation and the German Nation, 1600-1740

Thursday, 5th November 2015 – University of Liverpool Campus
Dr Annie Mattsson (University of Uppsala) - Surveillance and Documentation - The Role of the Archive in the Surveillance Work of the Stockholm and Paris Police in the 18th Century

Tuesday, 10th May 2016 – Victoria Gallery & Museum
Dr Mark Towsey (University of Liverpool) - Knowledge is Power' Gallery Talk

Monday, 16th May 2016 – University of Liverpool Campus
Writing about Nations (co-organised with the Voltaire Foundation) PGR workshop

Thursday, 2nd – Saturday 4th June 2016 – Liverpool Athenaeum
Trivial Pursuits: A Postgraduate and Early Career Researcher Workshop
Eighteenth-Century Worlds Past Events and Activities 2016-17

Thursday 24th November 2016 – University of Liverpool Campus
Prof Elaine Chalus (University of Liverpool), ‘My Dearest Tussy’: Coping with Separation during the Napoleonic Wars – the Fremantle Papers, c1800-14

Wednesday, 30th November 2016 – University of Liverpool Campus
Sarah Lentz (University of Bremen) - ‘Of Armchair Activists and “Good Germans”. The Spread of Anti-Slavery Sentiment in the German Territories, 1770-1815’

Thursday 8th December 2016 – University of Liverpool Campus
Professor Simon Burrows (Western Sydney University) - Enlightenment Best-Sellers: the Foreign, the Forbidden and the Forgotten.

Thursday, 9th February 2017 – University of Liverpool Campus
Frédéric Bauden (University of Liège) - ‘The Development of Oriental Studies in France in the 18th Century: from Antiquarianism to Politics’.

Wednesday 22nd March 2017 – University of Liverpool Campus
Dr Mark Towsey (University of Liverpool), ‘Studying History in Eighteenth-Century Britain and America: Readers, Texts and Contexts’.

Wednesday, 29th March 2017 – International Slavery Museum
Prof Rebekka von Mallinckrodt (Bremen) - ‘Trafficked Children in the Holy Roman Empire: A Forgotten Group of the Transatlantic Slave Trade’ (Co-organised with the Centre for the Study of International Slavery)

Thursday 4th May 2017 – University of Liverpool Campus
Writing Art in the Gothic Fiction of Ann Radcliffe - PGR Research Seminar

Friday 19th – Saturday 20th May 2017 – School of the Arts Library
Thomas Rickman and Liverpool Conference
Speakers: Megan Aldrich, Dr Rosemary Hill, Dr Joseph Sharples and Prof Rosemary Sweet

Friday 9th June 2017 – University of Liverpool Campus
The Lives and Afterlives of Eighteenth-Century Material Culture – PGR Workshop
Eighteenth-Century Worlds Past Events and Activities 2017-18

Tuesday 21\textsuperscript{st} November 2017 – University of Liverpool Campus

Wednesday 22\textsuperscript{nd} November 2017 - School of the Arts Library
The Bicentenary of Liverpool Royal Institution: A Celebration

Thursday 23\textsuperscript{rd} November 2017 – University of Liverpool Campus
Marie-Jeanne Rossignol (Paris VII-Diderot) – ‘Lost in Translation: Transatlantic Antislavery in the Age of Revolutions Reconsidered through the case of Anthony Benezet’.

Thursday 7\textsuperscript{th} December 2017 – University of Liverpool Campus
Dr Michael Morris (LJMU) - Scotland and the Carribean: New Lanark, Robert Owen and Slave Cotton

Thursday, 15\textsuperscript{th} February 2018 – University of Liverpool Campus
PGR Workshop: New Perspectives on the Age of Revolutions

Friday 9\textsuperscript{th} March 2018 – University of Liverpool Campus
Eighteenth-Century Worlds Study Day: Popular Science and the History of Libraries

Friday, 13\textsuperscript{th} April 2018 – University of Liverpool Campus
Conference: Modernist Afterlives of Eighteenth-Century Thought

Wednesday 16\textsuperscript{th} May 2018 – The Athenaeum, Liverpool
ECW 10th Birthday Party

Wednesday 14\textsuperscript{th} November 2018- University of Liverpool
Tusting the money of strangers in eighteenth century London