“The best thing about this programme is probably the warm welcome that everyone gave me. I felt so welcome here. This course complimented my course in Brazil so I feel more powerful now to do whatever I want to do. Home is where the heart is and Liverpool has my Heart.”

Sara, Brazil

We choose modules to reflect the best of our teaching.

Whether you want to widen your horizons or dig deep into a subject, you will find a combination that’s right for you.

Management, history, psychology, music, sustainability, culture, teaching, or language development – you will find something to inspire.
You’re here for a good time, not a long time.

We provide a social programme that includes welcome meals, day trips and nights out.

Liverpool is a city that welcomes visitors like old friends, and we’re here to show you the real city and its people.

We take welfare seriously too, with a dedicated team to make sure you settle and make the best of your time with us.
“It’s a phenomenal opportunity to meet so many people at an international level from different walks of life... to learn from the strengths of all these people. Liverpool itself is a wonderful city. It can get a little bit scary when you travel from one place to another but with Liverpool I felt it was really different, really great because I was able to settle in really quickly because of how compact the city is and how the university is situated so close to the city centre.”
