

ECS: Presenting Confidently

Module Description

Students learn tips and techniques to help them deliver presentations in English and have opportunities to practise in a university context with academics from different fields.

Module Leader

Peter Martin

Information

This module is only available as part of the English Communication Skills pathway.

This module is non-accredited, and is only available for study on-campus.

Content

The following topics will be considered:

- ▶ Building confidence delivering presentations in an academic context
- ▶ Using signposting language to help listeners
- ▶ Making presentations engaging and interesting to an academic audience
- ▶ Asking and responding to questions during Q&A sessions
- ▶ Practising and receiving feedback on short presentations
- ▶ Watching academics from a range of fields and get advice