- Pre-sessional English fees include a small charge for books and other study material. You will receive all the books and study material you need for classroom use.
- If you choose to study on Activate English or IELTS preparation, a charge for books and materials will be added to your fee. This is £50 for full time study (21 hours per week), £40 for morning only study (15 hours per week) and £30 for afternoon only study (6 hours per week). You will be charged this fee once only for each new application to study at the ELC and it does not depend on the number of weeks you choose to study. You will receive all the books and study material you need for classroom use.
- Fees include: Tuition, social programme and access to University of Liverpool facilities and services, including, libraries, computers, sports, social and welfare facilities.
- You can join an Activate English or IELTS preparation class on any Monday during our teaching blocks. You must join the Pre-sessional course at the beginning of the stage which is correct for your level of English.
- There are 4 non-teaching blocks during the year and no classes take place during these periods. You will not be charged for these weeks.
- A small number of teaching weeks contain public holidays or other non-teaching days. Normal weekly fees apply for these weeks.
- You can take the IELTS test at our on-site IELTS test centre. You will need to pay extra for your exam booking fee.
- We will suggest the best accommodation option for you at the time of booking. A range of room and apartment types are available from £125 - £170 per week.
- In-sessional English support for registered students at the University of Liverpool is offered free of charge and is scheduled to fit around your regular studies.
