Our wonderful alumni community

Did you know that in 2024, 902 of our alumni community made donations to support students?

And in the past year, more than 3,000 graduates volunteered over 7,000 hours of their time? You are joining a truly remarkable community. We can't wait to see how you inspire the next generation.

Student Fund

Every year the Student Fund, powered by alumni donations, provides bursaries and essential support to students facing financial hardship, helping them thrive at university.

"I didn't know if university was something on the cards for me while I was at school and I don't know if I could have gone to university without the Liverpool Bursary. The Bursary has been an unimaginable help. Without this support, my life would look very different. University has opened so many doors that would have remained firmly closed without the extra help I've received. I am now one step closer to my career ambitions, thank you." – Izzy, second year Classical Studies student

Support like this is what makes our community so special, where every student has the chance to thrive.

Your ceremony

Today’s ceremony is a unique opportunity to celebrate your hard work and achievements alongside family, friends, staff and classmates and will last between 1-1½ hours.

ORDER OF PROCEEDINGS

The ceremony will be declared open by either the Vice-Chancellor, Chancellor, or Executive Pro-Vice-Chancellor, and degrees will be conferred upon students by the Dean of the Institute or School.

STUDENT SPEAKERS

At each ceremony a new graduate will address the congregation. Student speakers have been nominated by a member of staff within their department.

THE MUSIC

The University organist will play a selection of classical music before the ceremony.

THE PROCESSION

At the beginning of the ceremony, the procession is led into the Hall which is composed of:

Ushers

Representatives of the University Community

- Deans of School
- Members of the Senior Leadership team
- Members of the University Council
- Civic Guests

The Esquire Bedell

The Presiding Officer

Our graduation ceremonies have remained essentially the same for more than 130 years and is steeped in history from when we began to confer our own degrees after obtaining the Charter in 1903. The ceremony has taken place in various locations including our own Victoria Building (now the Victoria Gallery and Museum), St George’s Hall, Liverpool Metropolitan Cathedral and the Philharmonic Hall.

THE UNIVERSITY MACE

The mace, which is carried by the Esquire Bedell, was presented to the University by Richard Caton MD, who was Professor of Physiology at Liverpool from 1881-1891 to commemorate his year of office as Lord Mayor of Liverpool. Composed entirely of silver, the head and crown are symbols of the Royal authority that granted the University’s incorporation in 1903, while the heraldic decorations beneath are the cipher of King Edward VII, surrounded by the coat of arms of England, Scotland and Wales; the County Palatine of Lancaster, the city of Liverpool; and the University of Liverpool.

THE UNIVERSITY MOTTO

The motto of the University, ‘Haec otia studia fovent’, is based on that of the city of Liverpool and means ‘This leisure fosters our studies’.

THE CEREMONIAL COAT OF ARMS

The University of Liverpool’s ceremonial coat of arms shows three Liver Birds with seaweed in their beaks surrounding an open book bearing the words ‘Fiat Lux’, meaning ‘Let there be light’.

UNIVERSITY OF LIVERPOOL

Academic Dress

All those graduating in today’s ceremony are required to wear robes in a style and colour appropriate to their particular programme of study. Bachelors, Masters and Doctors in Philosophy wear the ordinary academic cap. Doctors, other than Doctors in Philosophy, wear a square black velvet hat. Academic staff wear the robes of the university from which they graduated.

Our honorary graduates

Colin and Wendy Parry OBE

The day before Mother’s Day 1993, Colin and Wendy Parry’s lives were torn apart when their 12-year-old son Tim was killed, together with three-year-old Johnathan Ball, in a terrorist attack in Warrington Town Centre.

Two years later, focused on turning something so horrific into something good, Colin and Wendy founded the Tim Parry Johnathan Ball Foundation for Peace which would provide peaceful alternatives to the use of violence in conflict situations.

Since 1995, the Foundation’s work has evolved to keep pace with contemporary challenges, creating safe spaces where difficult dialogue and non-formal learning programmes help young people and adults become ‘agents for change.’

Colin and Wendy both received an OBE for their services to peace and conflict resolution and they are globally recognised campaigners, having worked with Prime Ministers and US Presidents over the past 30 years.

Our honorary graduate

Dr Richard Henderson

Richard is a biophysicist and molecular biologist who was the first to successfully produce a three-dimensional image of a biological molecule at atomic resolution using a technique known as cryo-electron microscopy.

After gaining his first class honours degree in Physics from the University of Edinburgh he went on to study for a PhD on enzyme chymotrypsin with David Blow at the MRC Laboratory of Molecular Biology (LMB) where he remained for the duration of his career.

His refinement of imaging methods for cryo-electron microscopy, in which biomolecules are frozen in such a way that allows them to retain their natural shape and are then visualised with a high-resolution microscope, enabled researchers to capture images of numerous biomolecular structures that previously could not be imaged by other means.

He was awarded the Nobel Prize for Chemistry in 2017 for developing cryo-electron microscopy for the high-resolution structure determination of biomolecules in solution and made a Companion of Honour in 2018.

“As a member of the medical profession:
I solemnly pledge to dedicate my life to the service of humanity.
The health and wellbeing of my patient will be my first consideration.
I will respect the autonomy and dignity of my patient.
I will maintain the utmost respect for human life.
I will not permit considerations of age, disease or disability, creed, ethnic origin, gender, nationality, political affiliation, race, sexual orientation, social standing or any other factor to intervene between my duty and my patient.
I will respect the secrets that are confided in me, even after the patient has died.
I will practise my profession with conscience and dignity and in accordance with good medical practice.
I will foster the honour and noble traditions of the medical profession.
I will give to my teachers, colleagues, and students the respect and gratitude that is their due.
I will share my medical knowledge for the benefit of the patient and the advancement of healthcare.
I will attend to my own health, well-being, and abilities in order to provide care of the highest standard.
I will not use my medical knowledge to violate human rights and civil liberties, even under threat.

Our honorary graduate

Levi Tafari

Levi is one of the city’s best known dub poets, playwrights and performers and has worked locally, nationally and internationally.

After leaving school he attended catering college studying Classical French cuisine. Liverpool in the early 80s was a hub of creativity and whilst working he attended the Liverpool 8 Writers Workshop and the scene was set for him to make it his mission to reach a wider audience.

Since then he has published four collections of poetry and written several plays. He is an advocate for the power of poetry and creativity, engaging in school visits around the world, often working with the British Council.

He has appeared at the University’s Liverpool Literary Festival to great acclaim and is a firm believer in the power of education. In 2023 he received a Citizen of Honour Award from Liverpool City Council which recognises individuals who have made significant, exceptional or unique contributions to enrich the image of the city.

“As a member of the medical profession:
I solemnly pledge to dedicate my life to the service of humanity.
The health and wellbeing of my patient will be my first consideration.
I will respect the autonomy and dignity of my patient.
I will maintain the utmost respect for human life.
I will not permit considerations of age, disease or disability, creed, ethnic origin, gender, nationality, political affiliation, race, sexual orientation, social standing or any other factor to intervene between my duty and my patient.
I will respect the secrets that are confided in me, even after the patient has died.
I will practise my profession with conscience and dignity and in accordance with good medical practice.
I will foster the honour and noble traditions of the medical profession.
I will give to my teachers, colleagues, and students the respect and gratitude that is their due.
I will share my medical knowledge for the benefit of the patient and the advancement of healthcare.
I will attend to my own health, well-being, and abilities in order to provide care of the highest standard.
I will not use my medical knowledge to violate human rights and civil liberties, even under threat.
I make these promises solemnly, freely, and upon my honour.”
