Students take 60 credits of modules in each semester, made up as follows:

A) 3 x 15-credit advanced language modules (AL)
plus 1 x 15-credit complementary module (C)

OR

B) 2 x 15-credit advanced language modules (AL)
1 x 15-credit beginners' language module (BL)
plus 1 x 15-credit complementary module (C)

OR

C) 1 x 15-credit advanced language module (AL)
2 x 15-credit beginners' language module (BL)

plus 1 x 15-credit complementary module (C)

Language modules must be taken in pairs across both semesters.

Students without formal qualifications (GCSE or A level) but with prior knowledge of a language and/or higher levels of linguistic ability on account of heritage, extended periods of residency in a relevant country or similar experience and exposure, may be permitted to take a higher-level language module, subject to agreement of the relevant Subject Lead.

Students must take a complementary (C) module from a different, relevant language area in each semester.

Chinese should normally only be taken alongside two advanced languages (i.e. Chinese cannot be taken concurrently with a second beginners' language).

Normally only students with an A at A level in their advanced language are eligible to take 2 beginners' languages (Option C).

HISP120 and HISP121 are complementary modules for Catalan and Portuguese, as well as Spanish. However, students cannot take both HISP120 and HISP121.

Students who are interested in studying Spanish, Catalan and Portuguese should consider registering for RR45 Hispanic Studies.
