Tate Liverpool Student Ambassador 2021/22

Background
Tate Liverpool has pioneered major partnership agreements with higher education institutions, providing a ground-breaking example of new ways for higher education institutions to engage with the cultural sector.

Partnerships with City of Liverpool College, Liverpool Hope University, University of Salford, and University of Liverpool provide staff and students with a range of exclusive benefits and exciting opportunities.

We’re looking for two Student Ambassadors to help encourage visits to exhibitions and events at Tate galleries and online through peer-to-peer recommendations.

Why join us?
- Receive a warm welcome and introductory training from the Tate Liverpool team.
- Advance updates about upcoming shows, events and behind-the-scenes at Tate Liverpool.
- Experience working as a volunteer for a major art institution.
- Invitations to openings and events.

Hours
- Voluntary role.
- Flexible, but a minimum of 2 hours each month.
  This can involve sharing Tate news on social media or coming along to an event or exhibition.
- The role is expected to last November 2021 – August 2022.

Duties
- Attending an introductory welcome session and events online and/or at Tate Liverpool where possible, dependent on Government guidance during the COVID-19 pandemic.
- Representing Tate Liverpool at University events including Welcome Fairs, Open Days and other events online and/or in-person, dependent on Government guidance during the COVID-19 pandemic.
- Promoting university partnership benefits to other students using social media and other appropriate channels. Depending on your institution, this could be free exhibition access and/or Tate special events.

Person Specification
- Confident
- An excellent communicator
- Reliable
- Approachable
- An interest in the arts
