Tate Liverpool x University of Liverpool Student Ambassador 2022/23

Background
Tate Liverpool and University of Liverpool work in partnership to provide staff and students with a range of exclusive benefits and exciting opportunities to engage with the cultural sector; including free tickets to paying exhibitions; discounts in our Café and Shop, and exclusive events and competitions.

We’re looking for two Student Ambassadors to promote these benefits and help encourage visits to exhibitions and events at Tate galleries using word-of-mouth and social media.

Why join us?
- Receive a warm welcome and introductory training from Tate Liverpool.
- Email updates about upcoming shows, events, and competitions.
- Opportunities to experience working as a volunteer for a major art institution for events.
- Invitations to openings and exclusive events at Tate Liverpool.

Hours
- Voluntary role.
- Flexible, but a minimum of 2 hours each month. This can involve sharing Tate news on social media or coming along to an event or exhibition to fit in with your studies.
- The role is expected to last October 2022 – 31 August 2023.

Duties
- Attending an introductory welcome session and events online and/or at Tate Liverpool where possible, dependent on Government guidance during the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic.
- Representing Tate Liverpool and University of Liverpool at events including Welcome Fairs, Open Days, Late at Tate Liverpool, and other events online and/or in-person, dependent on Government guidance during the COVID-19 pandemic.
- Promoting university partnership benefits to other students using word-of-mouth, social media and other appropriate channels.

Person Specification
- An excellent communicator
- Reliable
- Approachable
- An interest in the arts
