

RECRUIT

Improving accrual and recruitment conduct in clinical trials with children and other patients unable to consent for themselves.

The "Improving accrual and recruitment conduct in clinical trials with children and other patients unable to consent for themselves" meeting took place on Thursday 5th May 2011 at the Liverpool Medical Institution. The talks from the day can be found below.

Professor Terence Stephenson

Dr Bridget Young

MCRN Young Person's Consumer Group Members

Miss Haleema Shakur

Dr Patrina Caldwell

To view a report on the meeting, including feedback from individual delegates and from the breakout groups, please click here.

For a Powerpoint presentation on the RECRUIT study and presenter notes please click here.

Publications from the RECRUIT study:

Shilling V, Williamson PR, Hickey H, Sowden E, Beresford MW, Smyth RL, Young B (2011). Communication about children's clinical trials as observed and experienced: qualitative study of parents and practitioners. PLoS One 6(7): e21604
<http://www.plosone.org/article/info%3Adoi%2F10.1371%2Fjournal.pone.0021604>

Shilling V, Williamson PR, Hickey H, Sowden E, Smyth RL, Young B (2011) Processes in recruitment to randomised controlled trials (RCTs) of medicines for children (RECRUIT): a qualitative study. Health Technology Assessment 15:15 <http://www.hta.ac.uk/project/1530.asp>