

Free Family Law Legal Advice Service for LGBTQ+ Families

We give free confidential legal advice and support about...

- Planning a baby – advice on the legal implications of different decisions about conception.
- Managing legal arrangements after birth – advice about who has parental responsibility, who can apply for it and how to apply for it.
- Child arrangements – advice about disputes over who a child should live with or how often they should have contact with another parent or known donor.

Appointments available in person at the Law Clinic or on Zoom/Teams

Advice for LGBTQ+ families is supervised by Lucy Yeatman, an experienced family law solicitor. Lucy is a lesbian mother with a research background in law and same-sex families. Volunteer law students help to run the service.

Please note:

- We are unable to provide advice in relation to financial matters
- Our service is for advice and support only. We do not represent parents in court.
