Should Shamima Begum be stripped of her British Citizenship?

Insights from Legal Research

This is a cross cluster event hosted by the European Children Rights Unit, the Critical Approaches to International Criminal Law Unit and the International Human Rights Unit.

This event will involve short presentations from a number of researchers from the School of Law and Social Justice. They will offer their perspectives on the Shamima Begum case, drawing on international criminal law, human rights law, the law on statelessness and citizenship, children's rights law and media studies.

The event is free but you must register to attend.
