

Guild Gazette, 13th November 1995

Guild Goes Gay

The week from 13-17 November is Lesbian, Gay and Bisexual equality week in the guild.

A variety of events have been lined up, both for LGB students and those who want to support their campaign for equality.

Monday 13 sees the start of the campaign, with a debate on LGB liberation at 8pm. On Tuesday 14th, Guild Screen presents a double bill of camp classics, "Priscilla, Queen of the Desert", and "Muriel's Wedding". Wednesday night will feature a women-only event to be confirmed. It's your chance to "Go Wild Up My Aisle", on Thursday 16, at the Guild's monthly dance night for anyone and everyone who dares to be different.

In parallel to the social side of the week will run some political events. As well as the debate on Monday night, there will be a General Meeting in the Mountford Hall on Wednesday at 12:45pm. All students are asked to come along and show their support for LGB rights.

Finally, members of the LGB Society will be running a stall every lunchtime in the Guild foyer to answer any questions you may have.

November 13th 1995

arms Guild Goes Gay

ans d current The week from 13-17 the IPM. November is Lesbian, Gay e are trying and Bisexual equality week what the in the guild.

of music in A variety of events have what the been lined up, both for y is by LGB students and those alitative who want to support their hen the campaign for equality.

ompleted Monday 13 sees the start of produce the campaign, with a ties and debate on LGB liberation at in use." 8pm. On Tuesday 14th, s been Guild Screen presents a HD at double bill of camp sity for classics, "Priscilla, Queen ast she of the Desert", and olitical "Muriel's Wedding".

ne has Wednesday night will rleans feature a women-only called event to be confirmed. It's years. your chance to "Go Wild e been Up My Aisle", on Thursday project

g in ast 3

16 , at the Guild's monthly dance night for anyone and everyone who dares to be different.

In parallel to the social side of the week will run some political events. As well as the debate on Monday night, there will be a General Meeting in the Mountford Hall on Wednesday at 12.45pm.
All students are asked to come along and show their support for LGB rights.

Finally, members of the LGB Society will be running a stall every lunchtime in the Guild foyer to answer any questions you may have.

Pill Fears Furore