

Since 2021 EU applicants are typically classified as International applicants. Applications for deferred entry for international places will not be considered.

Admissions Test: All non-graduate applicants applying to the A100 programme must take UCAT. Details at www.ucat.ac.uk and <https://www.liverpool.ac.uk/medicine/study-with-us/undergraduate/admissions-information/>

The qualifications below are the minimum required for direct application to A100. If your country is not on the list below please contact mbchb@liverpool.ac.uk for advice.

Applicants are usually expected to have studied our core subjects of English Language, Maths and Sciences (to include some level of study in Biology, Chemistry and Physics) as part of their secondary education. Applicants will be required to demonstrate proficiency in English through IELTS (with a minimum of 7.0 in any component). We do not accept other English Language qualifications.

A graduate who offers the equivalent of a good 2:1 honours degree in a Biological, Biomedical or Health Science subject or who is on, or about to enter the final year of a relevant degree programme and have a degree award pending, may not need to meet the full academic criteria stated below but will be expected to sit the GAMSAT admissions test: <http://gamsat.acer.edu.au/gamsat-uk> Graduates offering non-science degrees may also be considered. All graduate applications will be reviewed on an individual basis.

Please note:

- Applicants must read our Departmental Supplement to the Admissions Policy. Applications made through UCAS in the normal way. An additional on-line form will need to be completed by certain groups of applicants, for example, applicants not offering a full range of GCSEs must provide year 10/11 school transcripts in order to support their application. Please refer to: www.liverpool.ac.uk/medicine/study-with-us/undergraduate/admissions-information/
- The indicative criteria are the minimum required. Invitation to interview is highly competitive and dependant on minimum academic achievement and UCAT performance. Non-academic attributes will be assessed at interview and offers made to the most competitive applicants. The Medical School reserves the right to vary offer conditions depending on a candidate's application. Further details at: www.liverpool.ac.uk/medicine/study-with-us/undergraduate/admissions-information/
- If an applicant fails to achieve a place on the A100 programme they may only make one further consecutive application to the programme.
- Applications may be considered from students entering the final year of study in degree programmes. However, please be advised that we do have specific criteria for A100 graduate applicants who are applying with pending or achieved degrees.
- We do not usually consider transfers into the medicine programmes, but we commit to reviewing all new applications on an individual basis.
- Applicants should make sure that their UCAS form is completed as fully as possible with details given of subjects studied and grades obtained throughout their secondary education. Full details of study/qualifications in our core subjects should be given and an academic reference must be supplied. Failure to do so will potentially lead to the rejection of the application based on insufficient information.
