

Thursday 3pm-
4.30pm
Session 1

	Title of Session	Title of Paper/Book	Name
1.1	The crimes of the law abiding Chair: Helen Wells, Keele University	Morality, criminality and privacy: negotiating deviance associated with adult recreational drug use. Looking for common sense in everyday law breaking Political Pandas?: the negotiation of roads policing priorities and practice in the era of the Police and Crime Commissioner	Rebecca Askew, Liverpool John Moores University Adam Snow, Keele University Helen Wells, Keele University
1.2	Green crime and the city: environmental harm's impacts on the metropole Chair: Tanya Wyatt, Northumbria University	'Life Stage Dissolution', and Intergenerational (In)equity: A Green-Cultural Criminological Analysis British People love to talk about the weather. Well British criminologists don't. Environmental Crime, Place and Spatial Analysis Eco-crimes and Fresh Water	Avi Brisman, Eastern Kentucky University and Nigel South, University of Essex Nic Groombridge, St Mary's University Rob White, University of Tasmania Nigel South, University of Essex and Reece Walters, Queensland University of Technology
1.3	The sexting and young people project: perceptions, representations, motivations and criminalisation Chair: Murray Lee, University of Sydney	Desiring images: perceptions and motivations of 'sexting' amongst young people Sexting, young people and criminalisation On crimes and punishment: Young people, sexting, morals and (in)appropriate criminal justice interventions From Shane Warne to snap chat: discourses of sexting in the Australian media	Murray Lee, University of Sydney Thomas Crofts, University of Sydney Sanja Milivojevic, University of New South Wales Alyce McGovern, University of New South Wales
1.4	Resisting the eclipse of prison ethnography Chair: Rod Earle, The Open University	Resisting The Eclipse of Prison Ethnography Prison ethnography at the threshold of race, reflexivity and difference. Going in green: Reflections on the challenges of 'getting in, getting on, and getting out' for doctoral prisons researchers	Deborah H. Drake, The Open University Rod Earle, The Open University and Coretta Phillips, London School of Economics Jennifer Sloan, University of Sheffield and Serena Wright, University of Cambridge
1.5	Victims of hate and prejudice Chair: Neil Chakraborti, University of Leicester	Recognising victims of hate Supporting victims of hate Understanding the harms of hate	Jon Garland, University of Surrey Stevie-Jade Hardy, University of Leicester Neil Chakraborti, University of Leicester
1.6	Feminist criminologies (1) Chair: Halimah DeShong, University of the West Indies, Cave Hill Campus	Strategies for Explaining Violence: A Feminist Material(-)Discursive Analysis of Men's Talk "Decriminalisation helps all of us and criminalisation harms all of us": The subjective viewpoints of sex workers on the current proposals to reform prostitution laws in the UK. A sustainable exit route from prostitution? Researching prostitution, faith and social enterprise	Halimah DeShong, University of the West Indies Stacy Banwell, University of Greenwich Katie Thorlby, University of Durham
1.7	Juvenile justice / youth justice / youth criminology (1) Chair: Patricia Gray, Plymouth University	International standards and youth offending team partnerships: Upholding the social rights of young people in conflict with the law in an age of austerity Abolishing the Youth Justice Board: the dynamics of central government reform Did fools rush in? Youth justice, the scaled approach and the risk factor prevention paradigm	Patricia Gray, Plymouth University Anna Souhami, University of Edinburgh Rachel Morris, Lancaster University

British Society of Criminology Conference 2014
University of Liverpool

1.8	Probation, community corrections and offender rehabilitation (1) Chair: Anthea Hucklesby, University of Leeds	Punishing the poor in the pursuit of profit? Probation work and desistance: a comparison of European practices Private Sector involvement in community corrections: a complex business ReachingOut: a model for offender rehabilitation and social re-integration	Lol Burke, Liverpool John Moores University and Steve Collett, University of Manchester Mr Pascal Décarpes, University of Bern, Switzerland Anthea Hucklesby, University of Leeds Christine Hough, University of Central Lancashire
1.9	Homes, harms and young people Chair: Barry Goldson	The Legacy of State Victimisation in New Zealand 'There's nothing you can do, it's always gonna' happen no matter what, it always has happened': an estate based response to preventing abusive attitudes and behaviour.	Elizabeth Stanley, Victoria University of Wellington, New Zealand Terry Gillespie, Kristan Hopkins-Burke and Christopher Crowther-Dowey, Nottingham Trent University
1.10	Penalty, penology and prisons (1) Chair: Andrew Goldsmith, Flinders University	Prison abolitionism: resistant to the hegemonic discourse on crime The Palestinian Prisoners' Movement - Political Imprisonment and Resistance Corruption in Prisons: Where is Criminology?	Simone Santorso, University of Padua Alyssa Bernstein, Queen's University of Belfast Andrew Goldsmith, Flinders University
1.11	Critical and cultural perspectives on public disorder and violence Chair: Stephen Wakeman, University of Manchester	The sound of the crowd Knocking and waiting: Gendered transcendental materialism in Breaking Bad Social dimensions, social perceptions and the dispersion of domestic violence in rural areas	Matt Clement, University of Winchester Stephen Wakeman, University of Manchester Lisa Harrison, University of New England, Armidale, Australia
1.12	Policing (1) Chair: Victoria Herrington, Australian Institute of Police Management	What is the value of police leadership? Police culture, transformational leadership and the rhetoric of 'change' The Police Service, Effective Leadership and Cultural Change 'Accountability is everywhere!' Comparative Study of Police Performance Regimes	Victoria Herrington, Australian Institute of Police Management Tom Cockcroft, Canterbury Christ Church University Mark Simpson and Pauline Ramshaw, Teesside University Jacques de Maillard, University of Versailles/CESDIP and Steve Savage, University of Portsmouth
1.13	Corporate, organised and white collar crime (1) Chair: Mike Sutton, Nottingham Trent University	Managerial Fraud: Wolves in sheep's clothing The research interview as a frame of fraud The Hi-tech Detection of Charles Darwin's and Alfred Wallace's Great Science Fraud Punishment of Elites in Ireland: Evaluation of Rationales, Adequacy and Problems in Sentencing of White-Collar Offenders.	Terry Sheridan, Guardian Angel Holdings Pty Ltd Christopher Schlembach, Austrian Road Safety Board and Anna Burgard, Austrian Road Safety Board Mike Sutton, Nottingham Trent University Tatiana V. Kelly, National University of Ireland Galway
1.14	Author meets critics Chair: Adam Crawford, University of Leeds	Realist Criminology	Author: Roger Matthews, University of Kent Critic: Simon Winlow, Teesside University Critic: Adam Crawford, University of Leeds Critic: Lynn Hancock, University of Liverpool

Thursday 4.30pm
- 6.00pm
Session 2

	Title of Session	Title of Paper/Book	Name
2.1	Roundtable: BSC Policing Network: Police culture and diversity: contemporary developments Chair: Matthew Jones, Northumbria University		Matthew Jones, Northumbria University and Simon Holdaway, The University of Sheffield Simon Holdaway, The University of Sheffield Marisa Silvestri, London South Bank University
2.2	Roundtable: Crime, justice and human rights: towards a criminology of human rights Chair: Elaine Fishwick, Sydney University		Elaine Fishwick, Sydney University Marinella Marmo, Flinders University Leanne Weber, Monash University Lorraine Gelsthorpe, University of Cambridge Sharon Pickering, Monash University Elizabeth Stanley, Victoria University, Wellington
2.3	BSC Victims Network: inaugural event and launch Chair: Pamela Davies, Northumbria University		Pamela Davies, Northumbria University Samantha Bricknell, Human Trafficking and Slavery/Violence Research Programs, Australian Institute of Criminology Hannah Bows, University of Durham Marian Duggan, Sheffield Hallam University Kate Fitz-Gibbon, Deakin University, Geelong Campus and Visiting Academic at the Centre for Criminology, Oxford University Matthew Hall, University of Sheffield Vicky Heap, Sheffield Hallam University Helen Jones, Discipline Lead, Sociology and Criminology at the Higher Education Academy Kirsty McGregor, University of Manchester
2.4	The Coalition youth justice reforms in practice: changing conditions and the conditions for change Chair: Laura Kelly, Liverpool John Moores University	Managerial practice cultures and boundary disputes: potential barriers to the Coalition Government's diversionary agenda within youth justice A Note of Caution: Re-evaluating youth cautioning in England and Wales Diverse diversions: youth justice reform, localised practices, and a 'new interventionist diversion'?	William Coyles, University of Kent Kate Gooch, University of Birmingham Laura Kelly, Liverpool John Moores University, Vici Armitage, University of Leicester and Jo Phoenix, University of Leicester
2.5	Border criminologies Chair: Mary Bosworth, University of Oxford	What are the limits to the sovereign state? Making sense of extra-territorial incarceration Enlisting the public in the policing of immigration The borders of exploitation: Labour trafficking and illegal migrant work Blurred boundaries: Experiencing immigration detention as punishment	Mary Bosworth, University of Oxford Ana Aliverti, Warwick University Marie Segrave, Monash University Sarah Turnbull, University of Oxford

2.6	Juvenile justice / youth justice / youth criminology (2) Chair: Simon Harding, Middlesex University	Girls in the Gang: Agency and Roles - a new interpretation Young People's Experiences of Justice: Formal and Informal Regulation, Control and Punishment Two paths going in the opposite direction	Simon Harding, Middlesex University Siobhán McAlister, University Belfast Ian R Craig, Northern Ireland Policing Board
2.7	Victim surveys and victimology (1) Chair: Paul Norris, University of Edinburgh	How gendered is domestic violence? Is the crime drop a fallacy? The role of prevalence, incidence and crime type in explaining changing levels of crime in Scotland All Rape Victims are Not Equal: the phenomenon of the invisibilized man	Sylvia Walby, Jude Towers and Brian Francis, Lancaster University Paul Norris and Rebecca Pillinger, University of Edinburgh Claire Cohen, Nottingham Trent University
2.8	Penality, penology and prisons (2) Chair: Azrini Wahidin, Nottingham Trent University	The violence of incarceration – strip searching of women at Armagh Gaol. Strip-searches in Belgian prisons: a history of denial 'A hidden issue in a hidden world': Findings from the Commission on Sex in Prison	Azrini Wahidin, Nottingham Trent University Tom Daems, Ghent University Alisa Stevens, University of Southampton and Lorraine Atkinson, Howard League for Penal Reform
2.9	Policing and community safety Chair: Peter Squires, University of Brighton	When Death is not a crime: challenges for police and policing. Domestic Homicide Reviews: Policing, process and procedures. From Trayvon to Reeva: Dilemmas of Neo-liberal Weaponisation	Belinda Carpenter, Gordon Tait and Carol Quadrelli, QUT, Qld, Australia and Ian Thompson, Queensland Police Service, Qld, Australia Louise Westmarland, The Open University Peter Squires, University of Brighton
2.10	Hate crime (1) Chair: Gail Mason, University of Sydney	Inocent actions and perceived intent: What part do (mis)perceptions of anti-social behaviour and young people play in shaping interpretations hostility and hate? The Hate Threshold: Emotion, causation and difference in the construction of prejudice motivated crime The indirect impacts of hate crime: the victim group response	Andrew Wilson, Nottingham Trent University Gail Mason, University of Sydney Mark Walters, University of Sussex
2.11	Crime, povery and the city Chair: Colin Webster, Leeds Metropolitan University	Poverty and Crime: cause, correlation and context? Women and Children Rough Sleepers: Two European Studies Space, Power and Urban Music: Busking in a Neoliberal City Resisting Abjection: Crime and Deviance as a response to the abject politics of contemporary Britain.	Colin Webster and Sarah Kingston, Leeds Metropolitan University Kate Moss and Paramjit Singh, University of Wolverhampton Roy Coleman and Krystal Roberts, University of Liverpool Ian Mahoney, Keele University
2.12	Drugs and crime control (1) Chair: James Martin, Macquarie University	'Fair trade' opium and 'conflict-free' cocaine: Online drug dealing and cryptomarket competition in the post-Silk Road era The Shifting Landscape of Cannabis in the Community: Acceptance, Anxieties and Ambiguities The cultural accommodation of licit and illicit drug consumption amongst university students	James Martin, Macquarie University Helen Beckett Wilson and Stuart Taylor, Liverpool John Moores University David Patton, Leeds Metropolitan University

2.13	Children, young people and justice Chair: Gilly Sharpe, University of Sheffield	Main cast or cameo role? Probation Officers in multi agency child protection work. Doing it for the Kids? 'Young' Motherhood and Desistance from Crime Care Leavers in the Criminal Justice System	Maria Ansbro, Bucks New University Gilly Sharpe, University of Sheffield Claire Fitzpatrick, Lancaster University and Patrick Williams, Manchester Metropolitan University
2.14	Author meets critics Chair: Molly Dragewicz, Queensland University of Technology	Organised Sexual Abuse. London. Routledge	Author: Michael Salter, University of Western Sydney Critic: Karen Evans, University of Liverpool Critic: Raewyn Connell, The University of Sydney Critic: Julia Davidson, Middlesex University London

Friday 8-30am
10.00am
Session 3

	Title of Session	Title of Paper/Book	Name
3.1	Women, Crime and Criminal Justice Network: Business Meeting Chair/Convenor: Anthea Hucklesby, University of Leeds		Anthea Hucklesby, University of Leeds
3.2	Penalty and welfare Chair: Mark Halsey, Flinders University	Intergenerational incarceration: Findings from a mid-range Australian state Welfare reform and crime control: no longer strange bedfellows Constructing the welfare client as deviant: The confluence of child welfare and carceral penalisation	Mark Halsey, Flinders University Emma Wincup, University of Leeds Jacqueline Z Wilson, Federation University Australia
3.3	Roundtable: connectors and communities: forming links and forging trust Chair: Basia Spalek, Kingston University		Basia Spalek, Kingston University Carlie Goldsmith, Kingston University Cecilia Cappel, Kingston University Stephanie Eaton, Kingston University
3.4	BSC Policing Network Panel: 'Good' police custody: early findings Chair: Layla Skinns, University of Sheffield	'Appreciating' police custody? The challenges of using appreciative inquiry in research on the police Police custody delivery in the 21 st century: is it 'good' enough? Discretionary decision-making in the micro-cosm of police custody	Amy Sprawson, Andrew Wooff and Layla Skinns, University of Sheffield Layla Skinns, Amy Sprawson and Andrew Wooff, University of Sheffield Andrew Wooff, Layla Skinns and Amy Sprawson, University of Sheffield
3.5	Juvenile justice / youth justice / youth criminology (3) Chair: Kate Fitz-Gibbon, Deakin University	Child perpetrated homicide in Victoria, Australia: A 10-year case analysis Winding Back Youth Justice Reforms: The Queensland Agenda 'A tale of two murders – an examination of societal attitudes to violent and extraordinary youth offending in New Zealand'	Kate Fitz-Gibbon, Deakin University Terry Hutchinson, QUT, Brisbane Nessa Lynch, Victoria University of Wellington
3.6	Probation, community corrections and offender rehabilitation (2) Chair: Sarah Lewis, University of Portsmouth	From Probation Service to probation services: The Rise and Fall of Community Rhetoric in "Community" Penalties Therapeutic Correctional Relationships: Playing the Game Effectiveness of Alcohol Treatment Programs in Reducing Recidivism	David Hayes, The University of Nottingham Sarah Lewis, University of Portsmouth Marie Needham, Plymouth University

3.7	Victim surveys and victimology (2) Chair: Karl Roberts, University of Western Sydney, Sydney, Australia	Honour-motivated suicide: Using data from the NVDRS to explore honour as a motive for suicide in the United States. 'Every Time I Try To Get Out, I Get Pushed Back':The Role of Violent Victimization in Women's Experiences of Multiple Homelessness Procedural Justice for Victims of Mass Crime: A Cambodian Case Study Adolescent Intimate Partner Violence : Prevention Interventions	Karl Roberts, University of Western Sydney, Sydney, Australia, Matthew Miller and Deb Azrael, Harvard University, Boston, USA Laura Huey, University of Western Ontario Rachel Killean, Queen's University of Belfast Kirsty McGrefor, University of Manchester
3.8	Penality, penology and prisons (3) Chair: Geoff Page, University of York	"This is the best you're gonna get!" Findings from a rapid assessment of NOMS pilot Drug Recovery Wings. Listening to the Metropole: Or, what's the point of elite interviewing? 'What's the purpose?' Achieving Just Outcomes and Improving Sentencing Guidelines	Geoff Page, University of York Harry Annison, Southampton University James A. Roffee, Monash University, Melbourne, Australia
3.9	Dimensions of crime prevention Chair: Elaine Barclay, University of New England	The increasing cost of crime for international tourism Challenging the hegemony of contemporary crime prevention strategies for the night-time economy: Exploring the counter-hegemonic potential of environmental criminology. Under the influence, but still getting the message?	Elaine Barclay, University of New England Paul Cozens, Curtin University Clare Gunby, University of Leicester
3.10	Drugs and crime control (2) Chair: TBC	The health rights of psychoactive users: How can a human rights lens improve the UK's drug control framework? Mixing Drink and Drugs in Coalition Policy: Towards a Harm-Based Approach?	Melissa Louise Bone, University of Manchester Mark Monaghan and Henry Yeomans, University of Leeds
3.11	Critical aspects of criminal justice (1) Chair: Yvette Tinsley, Victoria University of Wellington, NZ	Lawyers, Clients and Guilty Pleas – The Reality of the Criminal Process Austerity-driven justice: Legal aid, legal representation and the right to a fair trial Protecting juries from the law: fact-based question trails and juror comprehension	Daniel Newman and Rhian Newman, Cardiff University Asher Flynn, Monash University, Jackie Hodgson, University of Warwick and Jude McCulloch, Monash University Yvette Tinsley, Victoria University of Wellington, NZ
3.12	Policing (2) Chair: Matthew Jones, Northumbria University	A Tale of Two Cultures: Exploring the Occupational Experiences of Lesbian Gay and Bisexual Police Officers Post-Macpherson Establishing the Legitimacy of Policing in an Age of Plural Provision. Unravelling the role of Police and Crime Commissioners	Matthew Jones, Northumbria University Simon Fox, Southampton Solent University Matthew Davies, University of Oxford
3.13	Exiting prostitution: women and desistance Chair: Roger Matthews, University of Kent	Exiting Prostitution: A Study of Female Desistance Gendering Desistance: What women exiting prostitution can tell us about women's desistance. Using Repertory Grid to Understand Exiting Prostitution in the UK: Desistance, Emotions, and the Process of Change	Roger Matthews, University of Kent Helen Easton, London South Bank University Helen Johnson, University of Kent

Friday 11.30am -
1.00pm
Session 4

	Title of Session	Title of Paper/Book	Name
4.1	Roundtable: Convict criminology and the criminological imagination: outside looking in and inside looking out Chair: Rod Earle, The Open University		Rod Earle, The Open University Andy Aresti, University of Westminster Sacha Darke, University of Westminster Bill Davies, Leeds Metropolitan University David Honeywell, University of York Jeffrey Ian Ross, University of Baltimore, USA
4.2	BSC Policing Network Panel: Legitimacy and democratic policing (1) Chair: Jarrett Blaustein, Aberystwyth University	'Dialogic Legitimacy' and Police Development Assistance Policing and democracy: rethinking the terms of the debate Why International Police Development missions fail: A practitioner's view and a scholar's potential solution	Jarrett Blaustein, Aberystwyth University Liz Turner, University of Liverpool Tim Shilston, Northumbria University
4.3	Critical issues in contemporary youth justice Chair: Eileen Baldry, University of NSW	Youth with disability, welfare and criminalisation Narrating the Recent History of Juvenile Justice in Australia: What does it say about penal drivers, narratives and politics? Developments in youth penalty: global, national and local 'messyness'	Eileen Baldry, University of NSW David Brown, University of New South Wales and Chris Cunneen, Cairns Institute, James Cook University, Australia Barry Goldson, The University of Liverpool
4.4	Crime and reoffending: Home Office and Ministry of Justice work to inform crime reduction and offender management policy and practice Chair: Christine Cooper, Home Office	Youth Justice Interventions in England and Wales: are young people's offending related risks and needs being addressed? Factors associated with re-offending of adult prisoners and adults on community sentences: results from two large Ministry of Justice longitudinal cohort studies. The start of a criminal career: does debut offence predict future offending? Understanding criminal careers in organised crime	Alana Diamond and Edith Wilson, Ministry of Justice Kathryn Hopkins and Anna Upson, Ministry of Justice Christine Cooper, Home Office Mike Skidmore, Home Office
4.5	Juvenile justice / youth justice / youth criminology (4) Chair: Alice Sampson, University of East London	Young people actively and peacefully challenging the dominant social order; favela Complexo da Maré, Rio de Janeiro Under the threshold: the transition from crime to conformity among juvenile offenders in Latin America Adult life adjustment of previously institutionalized youths	Alice Sampson, University of East London Catalina Droppelmann, University of Cambridge Janna Verbruggen, Cardiff University
4.6	Probation, community corrections and offender rehabilitation (3) Chair: Monica Barry, University of Strathclyde	Theorizing the Role of 'The Brand' in Criminal Justice: The case of Integrated Offender Management Shaping the Contours of Desistance or the Contours of Control? The regulation of breach and compliance by social workers in Scotland 'Old lags, wise friends or new experts?' Ex-offenders and the 'rehabilitation revolution.'	Harry Annison, Southampton University and Ben Bradford, Oxford University Monica Barry, University of Strathclyde Dennis Gough, University of Portsmouth

4.7	Vulnerability and domestic violence Chair: Pamela Davies, Northumbria University	Crime Prevention, Community Safety and Vulnerability The legal regulation of violence in intimate relationship in Finland and the victim's point of view Domestic Violence in the Portuguese Community in England 'Perceptions and pitfalls in relation to the national Domestic Violence Disclosure Scheme'	Pamela Davies, Northumbria University Riikka Kotanen, University of Helsinki Sofia Graca, Canterbury Christ Church University Charlotte Baxter, Sheffield Hallam University, Marian Duggan, University of Kent and Jamie Grace, Sheffield Hallam University
4.8	Victim surveys and victimology (3) Chair: Helen Codd, UCLAN	Victim Support in the Age of Austerity Allocating Voice for Victims in Substantive and Procedural Criminal Justice: International Comparative Approaches Places of Safety? International Perspectives on Women-Only Police Stations	Lesley Simmonds, Plymouth University Tyrone Kirchengast, University of New South Wales, Australia Helen Codd, UCLAN, and Beulah Shekhar, Manonmaniam Sundaranar University, Tirunelveli, India
4.9	Policing (3) Chair: Abi Dymond, University of Bristol	A little goes a long way? The effects of mounted police on policevisibility and public confidence in neighbourhood police deployments A Shocking Weapon? Taser, and the Taser Actor-Network, in the UK. Police Body Worn Video Cameras: Panacea or efficiency saving device? Socio Economic Deprivation, Institutional Outlay And The Intent Of Mobile Snatching And Street Assaults In Pakistan	Chris Giacomantonio, RAND Europe, Ben Bradford, Matthew Davies and Richard Martin, University of Oxford Abi Dymond, University of Bristol Tom Ellis, Institute of Criminal Justice Studies Asad Salahuddin, Lahore School of Economics
4.10	Crime, criminalisation and social exclusion Chair: Steve Hall, Teesside University	System Normal: The 'crime decline', the mutation of criminal activity and the pseudo-pacification process Crime, capital and security in London's Alpha Territory Capitalist, Control, Penalty, and Social Exclusion	Steve Hall, Teesside University Rowland Atkinson and Dave Rhodes, University of York John Michael Pratt, Teesside University
4.11	Human rights and comparative contexts Chair: Anthony Amatrudo, University of Middlesex	Cohen, Lopez-Ray and Zedner: 3 Ways of Doing Human Rights Within Criminology Vinter v. United Kingdom: the European Convention on Human Rights and judicial resistance to punitiveness The Expungement of Criminal Records in South Africa: The Drafting History of the Law, the Unresolved Issues and How they could be Resolved Immigration Detention Centers from a gender perspective: the Spanish case	Anthony Amatrudo, University of Middlesex Mary Rogan, Dublin Institute of Technology, Ireland Jamil D. Mujuzi, University of Western Cape Ana Ballesteros Pena, University of Barcelona
4.12	Corporate, organised and white collar crime (2) Chair: T Wing Lo, City University of Hong Kong	Triad quasi-legitimate business structure in the gaming industry of Macau Gaining leverage in the pursuit of legitimacy against transnational corporate corruption: 'negotiated justice', 'deferred prosecution' and the myth of the 'corporate death penalty' Convergent Policies, Divergent Mind-sets, Policing organised crime in Italy and in England under the influence of the United Nations and the European Union This really is a must-see: Examining the interactional construction of criminal scam communications	T Wing Lo, City University of Hong Kong Nicholas Lord, University of Manchester Anna Sergi, University of Essex Elisabeth Carter, Buckinghamshire New University

4.13	Feminist criminologies (2) Chair: Kelly Richards, Queensland University of Technology	Does rape 'happen for a reason'? A critical examination of the impacts of new-age self-help truth claims on constructions of victims of gendered violence Why are rape myths central to sexual violence trials? Expanding our understanding beyond ignorance and sexism. Gang Rape and 'Race War' in Sydney's West: Gendered Threats of Multiculturalism Silencing the other: Gendered representations of female criminals	Kelly Richards, Queensland University of Technology Olivia Smith, Anglia Ruskin University Tanya Serisier, Queens University Belfast Charlotte Barlow, University of Liverpool
4.14	Criminology and war: transgressing the borders Chair: Ross McGarry, University of Liverpool	Between war crimes and war as crime Criminology and war: seeing blurred lines clearly Competing for the 'trace': The legacies of war's violences	Vincenzo Ruggiero, University of Middlesex Emma Murray, Liverpool John Moores University Sandra Walklate and Ross McGarry, University of Liverpool

Friday 2pm -
3.30pm
Session 5

	Title of Session	Title of Paper/Book	Name
5.1	Critical aspects of family law Chair: Molly Dragiewicz, Queensland University of Technology	In harm's way: Family law as a site of state crime The Evolution of Hester's 'Planets': Implications for Future IDVAS Practice	Molly Dragiewicz, Queensland University of Technology Simon Kerss, Anglia Ruskin University
5.2	BSC Policing Network Panel: Legitimacy and Democratic Policing (2) Chair: Jarrett Blaustein, Aberystwyth University	An Opportunity Missed? Police scandals and impression management in troubled times: The case of the Leveson Inquiry Democracy inside the job: contradictions and implications for democratic policing Police and Crime Commissioners - who holds the power?	Ian Shannon, The University of Liverpool Rob C. Mawby, University of Leicester Emma Williams and Dominic Wood, Canterbury Christ University Sophie Chambers, Cardiff University
5.3	Green victims, offenders and crime fighters Chair: Tanya Wyatt, Northumbria University	The Uneven Geography of Environmental Enforcement INGOs: National Influence of Wealth on a Global Civil Society and Potential Implications for Ecological Disorganization Creative Compliance, Constructive Compliance: Corporate Environmental Crime and the Criminal Entrepreneur Deconstruction of Green Victims and Offenders Victims of environmental harm: participation rights for environmental justice?	Paul Stretesky, Northumbria University, Michael Long, Oklahoma State University, Michael Lynch, University of South Florida Angus Nurse, Middlesex University Tanya Wyatt, Northumbria University Matthew Hall, University of Sheffield
5.4	Prisoners' families, diversity and Social Justice Chair: Rachel Condry, University of Oxford	Prisoners' Families and Social Justice Prison Visits: A private life in a public setting Looking beyond the nuclear family: hearing the diverse voices of families affected by imprisonment Criminal Justice, Social Justice, and Long-term Prisoners' Partners	Rachel Condry, University of Oxford Marie Hutton, University of Birmingham Cara Jardine, University of Edinburgh Anna Kotova, University of Oxford
5.5	Politics and crime: exploring and theorising emerging trends in the nexus between citizenship, crime and the polity Chair: Stephen Farrall, University of Sheffield	Historical institutionalism, agendas and crime: an analysis of the politics of crime since 1979 Local Participation and Perceptions of Justice Punishment, Citizenship and Penal Policy	Stephen Farrall, University of Sheffield, Will Jennings, Southampton University, Emily Gray, University of Sheffield and Colin Hay, Sciences Po, Paris Jennifer Sloan, University of Sheffield Cormac Behan, University of Sheffield
5.6	Critical aspects of criminal justice (2) Chair: Daniel Gilling, Plymouth University	Public Attitudes on the Operation of a Community Justice Court: Building Confidence or Raising Concern? Competing wrongful conviction conceptions A marketable story or moralistic crusade? : Exploring journalists' motivations for investigating miscarriages of justice. Reflecting on Part 5 of POCA: civil recovery in practice	Daniel Gilling, Jill Annison, Tim Auburn, Gisella Hanley Santos, Plymouth University David Hamer, Sydney University Sam Poyser, Nottingham Trent University Colin King, University of Manchester

5.7	Women and criminal justice Chair: Michele Burman, University of Glasgow	Women, prison and penal policy in Scotland: pledges, promises and perverse incentives Women, crime and criminal justice policy in England and Wales: three steps forwards, four steps backwards? WOMEN'S PARTICIPATION IN 'BLACK-SOCIETY STYLE CRIMINAL ORGANISATIONS': EVIDENCE FROM AN EMPIRICAL STUDY AT A FEMALE PRISON IN CHINA Respectful Modules (Módulos de respeto) and the Therapeutic and Educational Units (Unidades Terapéuticas y Educativas) from a non-androcentric perspective	Michele Burman, University of Glasgow, Margaret Malloch and Gill McIvor, University of Stirling (all Scottish Centre for Crime and Justice Research, SCCJR) Loraine Gelsthorpe, University of Cambridge Anqi Shen, Teesside University Ana Ballesteros Pena, Anna Morero and Elisabet Almeda, University of Barcelona
5.8	Risk, security and control (1) Chair: TBC	The risk of chemical, radiological, biological and nuclear explosive weapons (CBRNE) at European Borders: Some notes on an ongoing study on the development of a technological device for CBRNE detection. Risk and Morality: Redefining moral panics for the 21st century 'Beware of the dog': Security, choice and wealth	Teresa Degenhardt, Queen's University Belfast Jewel Thomas, University of Guyana Sam King, University of Leicester
5.9	Critical criminological perspectives (1) Chair: Gabe Mythen	The cultural contradictions of terrorism: extending the criminological imagination The Walk of Shame: On the troubles of safety and of going too far Inherently Suspect: The policing of marginalized women in Australia Pop Tarts, Earthquakes and Crime: The Perils of Predictive Policing	Gabe Mythen and Sandra Walklate, Liverpool University Alexandra Fanghanel, University of Bedfordshire Brandy Cochrane, Monash University and Scarlet Wilcock, University of New South Wales Dean Wilson, Plymouth University
5.10	Policing (4) Chair: Olga Pleshkova, University of Nottingham	The art of skating on thin ice: Victim Satisfaction Surveys From Segregation to Integration and Back Again? Women Police in Contemporary Russia Chibnall and Mawby revisited: a re-evaluation of relations between the Metropolitan Police Service and the national news media from 1977 to the present day	Nigel Pantak, University of Liverpool Olga Pleshkova, University of Nottingham Marianne Colbran, University of Oxford
5.11	Post-colonial criminology, 'race' and racialisation Chair: John Moore, UWE Bristol	The Empire's coming home: Liberalism, Exclusion and the Punitiveness of the British State. The password to protection: Australian border screening and postcolonial criminology Make It Count: The challenge in proving the potential for Australian Aboriginal healing programs to impact incarceration rates	John Moore, UWE Bristol Louise Boon-Kuo, University of Sydney, Australia Patrick Shepherdson, Crime Prevention and Community Safety consultant
5.12	Hate crime (2) Chair: Zoë James, Plymouth University	Understanding the impact of Islamophobia upon veiled Muslim women as actual and potential victims Hate Crime Fifteen Years Post-Macpherson: The lack of reach in diversity policing	Irene Zempi, University of Leicester Zoë James and Chris Pac-Soo, Plymouth University
5.13	Terror and 'terrorism' Chair: Michael Salter, University of Western Sydney	The drone fetish: Consumerism and pleasure in the militarisation of policing Community Engagement for Counter-Terrorism: an exploration of the role of 'connectors' in countering Takfiri Jihadist Terrorism.	Michael Salter, University of Western Sydney Basia Spalek, Kingston University

		Muslim community attitudes towards counter-terrorism policing and laws - its impact and unintended consequences	Adrian Cherney, University of Queensland
5.14	Youth Justice cultures and the 'punitive turn' in England, Ireland and Northern Ireland Chair: Claire Hamilton, Queen's University Belfast	Putting the 'Process' Back into Punishment Youth Justice in context: Fields of Fluid Rationalities Youth Justice Cultures: unintended consequences?	Claire Hamilton, Queen's University Belfast Nicola Carr, Queen's University Belfast Wendy Fitzgibbon, London Metropolitan University

Friday 5pm -
6.30pm
Session 6

	Title of Session	Title of Paper/Book	Name
6.1	Crime prevention and crime reduction Chair: Andrew Millie, Edge Hill University	Stories from the South: Observations on Contemporary Crime Prevention and the Crime Decline in Australia Why crime has not 'dropped': A morality tale Designing out crime in Botswana: The alignment of community perceptions of crime with Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design (CPTED) principles in a non-Western context.	Garner Clancey, and Patrick Shepherdson, Sydney Institute of Criminology Andrew Millie, Edge Hill University Paul Cozens, Curtin University
6.2	Authors meet critics Chair: Rob White, University of Tasmania	Penal Culture and Hyperincarceration: the revival of the prison. Ashgate, Aldershot	Author: Eileen Baldry and David Brown, University of New South Wales, Chris Cunneen, James Cook University, Australia Critic: Rob White, University of Tasmania Critic: Barry Goldson, University of Liverpool Critic: Mark Halsey, Flinders University
6.3	Roundtable: Teaching criminology: into the future Chair: Helen Jones, Higher Education Academy		Helen Jones, Higher Education Academy Azrini Wahidin, Nottingham Trent University Pamela Davies, Northumbria University Phil Johnson, Blackburn University College Stuart Agnew, University Campus Suffolk Marian Duggan, Sheffield Hallam University Vicky Heap, Sheffield Hallam University
6.4	Roundtable: BSC Women, Crime and Criminal Justice Network: gender and generation: women's reflections on forging careers in criminology Chair: Anthea Hucklesby, University of Leeds		Michele Burman, University of Glasgow Serena Wright, University of Cambridge Emma Wincup, University of Leeds.
6.5	From the inside looking out: The impact of imprisonment in the desistance process Chair: Esther van Ginneken, Liverpool Hope university	An Exploration of the Role of Hope during Imprisonment and Implications for Life after Release Women Prisoners' Resettlement and the Struggle to Desist Understanding and Supporting the Desistance-potential of Fatherhood among Young Offenders	Esther van Ginneken, Liverpool Hope University Emily Hart, Liverpool Hope University Emily Turner, University of Bradford
6.6	Legal responses to Single Punch Homicide Chair: Kate Fitz-Gibbon, Deakin University	Single-punch homicides The case for an offence of unlawful assault causing death Legal responses to single-punch homicide in New South Wales (Australia): The police perspective	Barry Mitchell, Coventry University Thomas Crofts, The University of Sydney Kate Fitz-Gibbon, Deakin University
6.7	Sexual harm and violence Chair: Dubravka Polic, University of Portsmouth	International Prosecution of Rape and Other Sexual Crimes Committed during Armed Conflicts Barriers to reporting sexual violence in South Asian communities Procuring sexual activity by deception: Setting the boundaries of acceptability	Dubravka Polic, University of Portsmouth Karen Harrison, University of Hull Omar Madhloom, De Montfort University

British Society of Criminology Conference 2014
University of Liverpool

6.8	Risk, security and control (1) Chair: Jude McCulloch, Monash University	Pre-crime: Fantasy, Fact and Future Crime Bouncers as watchmen and challengers of metropolitan security	Jude McCulloch, Monash University Christine Preiser, Max Planck Institute for Foreign and International Law
6.9	Penalty, penology and prisons (3) Chair: Rose Ricciardelli, Memorial University of Newfoundland	Prison benchmarking; the rise of the prisoner mentor and the de-professionalisation of the prison officer Men policing men: Gender subject positions and correctional officers as occupational edge-workers Female Homicide Offenders: An Exploration of Personal Narratives	Hugh Asher, University of Bradford and Victoria Lavis, University of Bradford Rose Ricciardelli, Memorial University of Newfoundland Elizabeth Gurian, Norwich University
6.10	Policing (5) Chair: Karen Shalev Greene, University of Portsmouth	ABSENT: An exploration of common police procedures for safeguarding practices in cases of missing children and adults Policing Welfare: Linking Gender, Welfare and Criminality Craft or Science? The practices of investigative interviewing.	Karen Shalev Greene and Francis Pakes, University of Portsmouth Scarlet Wilcock, University of New South Wales Fiona Wadie, University of Portsmouth
6.11	Young people and justice Chair: Wing Hong Chui, The University of Hong Kong	Resisting Post-Colonial Governance in Hong Kong: Penal Elitism, Re-Sinicization and the Spectrum of Youth Citizenship Perception of Fairness and Satisfaction in Lawyer-client Interactions among Young Offenders in Hong Kong The independent entrepreneur and the 'asbo kid': The Structure and Activity of a Coalition of a London Youth Gang Policing by injunction and the case of the 'Gangbo': some early observations on the use of gang injunctions and gang violence prevention in England.	Michael Adorjan, University of Calgary and Wing Hong Chui, University of Hong Kong Wing Hong Chui, The University of Hong Kong and Kevin Kwok-yin Cheng, Chinese University of Hong Kong James Windle, University of East London James Treadwell and Kate Gooch, University of Birmingham
6.12	Critical criminological perspectives (2) Chair: John Scott, University of New England	How 'crime problems' are socially constructed in a rural Australian town Contentious Spaces for Criminology– Regulation and Abuse in the Workplace Conflicting Epistemes in Carceral Management Radical environmentalism and the problematisation of nature, deviance and harm.	John Scott, University of New England Emily Schindeler, Griffith University Charles Elliott, University of Cambridge John Cianchi, University of Tasmania
6.13	Film Session Chair: David Whyte, University of Liverpool	A Sense of Freedom	Discussant: Joe Sim, Liverpool John Moores University Discussant: David Whyte, University of Liverpool

Saturday 8.30am -
10.00am
Session 7

	Title of Session	Title of Paper/Book	Name
7.1	Roundtable: Expanding employment opportunities for ex-offenders: The case for job corps and manpower initiatives for ex-offenders Chair: Sandra Lee Browning, University of Cincinnati		Sandra Lee Browning, University of Cincinnati Alberta Thrash, Central State University Tony Hill, University of Cincinnati
7.2	Victims, vulnerability and securing justice Chair: Vicky Heap, Sheffield Hallam University	Crime Prevention, Community Safety and Vulnerability Victims as Vote-Winners: Politicising Victimisation Adminstrating Hierarchies of Victimisation	Pamela Davies, Northumbria University Marian Duggan and Vicky Heap, Sheffield Hallam University Vicky Heap and Marian Duggan, Sheffield Hallam University
7.3	Probation, community corrections and offender rehabilitation (4) Chair: Emily Evans, University of Nottingham	Examining Criminogenic Needs as Predictors of Recidivism The Transforming Rehabilitation changes to the Probation Service in the UK and their anticipated impact upon multi-agency working Dealing with and overcoming stigma – offender reintegration and the role of employment and the workplace	Marie Needham, Plymouth University Emily Evans, University of Nottingham Adrian Cherney and Robin Fitzgerald, University of Queensland
7.4	Sex work, drugs and trafficking Chair: Alison Jobe, Durham University	The police, sex work, and section 14 of the Policing and Crime Act 2009 Sexual Trafficking Stories and the British Asylum System Women's offending in global context: a narrative theory of women as drug mules	Sarah Kingston and Terry Thomas, Leeds Metropolitan University Alison Jobe, Durham University Jennifer Fleetwood, University of Leicester
7.5	Inclusion, exclusion and the 'other' Chair: Dainis Ignatans, University of Kent	Immigration and its effects on crime in the UK. No Fixed Address: 'Homelessness' and 'Social Exclusion' Infecting the Conscience Collective?: Travellers and State Harms Generation level and delinquency: Implications of Integration systems in Minoritized groups' risk-taking behaviours	Dainis Ignatans and Roger Matthews, University of Kent Daniel McCulloch, The Open University Anthony Donnelly-Drummond, Middlesex University Veronica Cano, University of Sheffield
7.6	Urban street gangs Chair: Daniel Gunnell, Warwick University	Understanding urban street gangs through social network analysis Policing by injunction and the case of the 'Gangbo': some early observations on the use of gang injunctions and gang violence prevention in England. The absence of gangs in Milton Keynes: A Negative Aetiology The Street Casino – survival in the violent urban street gang	Daniel Gunnell, Warwick University and Joseph Hillier, Home Office James Treadwell and Kate Gooch, University of Birmingham Steve Conway, Milton Keynes Council/Sussex University Simon Harding, Middlesex University

British Society of Criminology Conference 2014
University of Liverpool

7.7	The university as a focus of criminological research Chair: Stephanie Eaton, Kingston University	How many 'criminals' are in that lecture? British Universities' policies and practices for applicants with previous convictions Student perceptions of necrophilia	Stephanie Eaton, Kingston University Sophia Ralph, University of the West of England
7.8	What is criminology for? Chair: Simon Winlow, Teesside University	"Doing" Public Criminology: A Canadian Case Study The zombification of criminology	Lauren D. Eisler, Wilfrid Laurier University Simon Winlow, Teesside University
7.9	Traffic accidents and incidents: international perspectives Chair: Andy Bain, University of Mount Union, Ohio	Sanctions for Drivers Causing Traffic Accidents under the Influence of Alcohol in Austria: a Comprehensive Analysis 'It isn't really a crime'	Armin Kaltenegger, Austrian Road Safety Board Andy Bain, University of Mount Union, Ohio
7.10	Criminologies of the military Chair: Ross McGarry, University of Liverpool	Military Misconduct: The Australian Defence Force discovers Tribalism Are the Good Men Guilty? A Critique of the Legal Standard Set for Obedient Soldiers in Modern Combat Criminological realism and the military	Ben Wadham, Flinders University Carmel O'Sullivan, Queensland University of Technology Ross McGarry, University of Liverpool
7.11	BSC Policing Network: Business Meeting Chair/Convenor: Megan O'Neill, University of Dundee		Megan O'Neill, University of Dundee

Saturday 10am -
11.30am
Session 8

	Title of Session	Title of Paper/Book	Name
8.1	Authors meets critics Chair: Gabe Mythen, University of Liverpool	Policing and Media: Public Relations, Simulations and Communications	Author: Murray Lee, University of Sydney, Australia Author: Alyce McGovern, University of NSW, Australia Critic: Jude McCulloch, Monash University, Australia Critic: Ian Shannon, University of Liverpool Critic: Louise Westmarland, The Open University Andrew Goldsmith, Flinders University, Adelaide.
8.2	BSC Policing Network Panel: Police Roles in Theory and Practice Chair: Matthew Bacon, University of Sheffield	PCSOs, budget cuts and Neighbourhood Policing: Who does the 'core' police work around here? Relationships and responses: Policing anti-social behaviour in rural Scotland Police Detectives and the Policing of Drugs: Enforcement, Order Maintenance or Harm Reduction?	Megan O'Neill, University of Dundee Andrew Wooff, University of Sheffield Matthew Bacon, University of Sheffield
8.3	International perspectives on prisoners' children Chair: Rachel Condry, University of Oxford	Justice for the Children? A study of the impact of maternal imprisonment Children of prisoners – their problems, rights and the possibilities for reform Canadian children's first person accounts of parental incarceration 'I know you are not a baddy, you are a goody': Children's responses to their mother's incarceration	Shona Minson, University of Oxford Peter Scharff-Smith, Danish Institute for Human Rights Else Marie Knudsen, London School of Economics Isla Masson, Coventry University
8.4	Critical aspects of criminal justice (3) Chair: Ester Ragonese, Liverpool John Moores University	A Critical Examination of Witness Protection in Australia Re-evaluating resettlement: best practice and challenges to the reintegration of offenders. Building Collective Capacity for Criminal Justice Policy Change	Phil Kowalick University of New England Ester Ragonese, Rebecca Askew and Noel Cross, Liverpool John Moores University Deborah Drake, The Open University and Neena Samota, Chair Voice4Change and Trustee Coalition for Racial Justice
8.5	Feminist criminologies (3) Chair: Jill Annison, Plymouth University	Therapeutic Justice and Women Offenders: A Community Justice Court Case Study How to Cure a Feminist: Laddism, 'Everyday Sexism' and Assault Women, violence and the workplace	Jill Annison, Plymouth University Sharon Hayes, Queensland University of Technology Sharon Beckett, University of Plymouth
8.6	Histories of crime / historical criminology Chair: David Doyle, Irish Research Council Marie Skłodowska-Curie/University of Oxford	A Family Affair? English Hangmen and a Dublin Gaol, 1923-54 Rape: Words and Emotion in Eighteenth-Century Print Punishment and Colonization: the case of transportation and convictism in the 'Global South' Taxation as Behavioural Regulation: The Case of Alcohol Excise Duties	David Doyle, Irish Research Council Marie Skłodowska-Curie/University of Oxford and Ian O'Donnell, University College Dublin Esther Snell, Southampton Solent University Russell Hogg and David Brown, Queensland University of Technology Henry Yeomans, University of Leeds
8.7	Punishment, penalty and prisons Chair: Natalia Vibla, University of Cambridge	Uncovering Swedish sentencing with regards to multiple-offence cases "Problematic situation" in Brazil? Reflections on a paradigmatic change in the criminal justice system within a country of punitive culture. Segregation in Scottish Prisons: A Socio-Spatial History	Natalia Vibla, University of Cambridge Jéssica Gomes da Mata, University of São Paulo Jessica Bird, University of Edinburgh

8.8	Policing (6) Chair: Deborah Platts-Fowler, University of Leeds	Policing the 'Chaotic': Existential Predicaments and Dilemmas of Control Policing to prevent and contain social disorder Public Order Policing in Hong Kong: From British Colony to China's SAR	Daniel McCarthy, University of Surrey Deborah Platts-Fowler, University of Leeds Lawrence Ka-ki HO, The Hong Kong Institute of Education
8.9	Crime prevention, technologies and law Chair: Geoff Berry, University of Northampton	Evidence based approaches: integration and inclusivity Closed-circuit, closed-space: the impact of CCTV cameras and intergenerational othering A new era for unauthorised access or back to basics? The Directive 2013/40/EU and its implications for UK cybercrime law Interprofessional collaboration in criminal justice system	Geoff Berry, University of Northampton Caitlin Overington, University of Melbourne Vasileios Karagiannopoulos, University of Portsmouth Ercan Balcioglu, Leicester University, Ali Yildirim, De Montfort University and Mr Erkan Pala, Loughborough University
8.10	Genocide Chair: Hazel Cameron, University of St Andrews	BMATT and the Matabeleland Massacres Zimbabwe Talking officially: How genocide survivors talk about their experiences	Hazel Cameron, University of St Andrews Linda Asquith, Nottingham Trent University
8.11	Aspects of comparative criminology Chair: David Pritchard, University of Portsmouth	Unrest and inequalities: comparing welfare states Poverty, Inequality and Homicide: Some Methodological Arguments Based on European Data Nordic Exceptionalism' versus 'Anglophone Excess'? A cross-national qualitative analysis of female routes out of criminal justice in Sweden and England	David Pritchard, University of Portsmouth Paul Norris, University of Edinburgh Linnéa Osterman, University of Surrey
8.12	Authors meet critics Chair: Steve Tombs, Open University	Still Dying for a Living Corporate Manslaughter and Regulatory Reform	Author: Steven Bittle, University of Ottawa Critic: Hilda Palmer, Families Against Corporate Killers and Hazards Critic: Steve Tombs, Open University
8.13	BSC Crime and Justice Statistics Network Panel Chair: Allan Brimicombe, University of East London	Examining Crime, Ethnicity and Gender within zones of transition and stability in Nottingham The Crime Drop and Security Hypothesis: Exploring Household Burglary Risk in England and Wales A Quantum of Crime in an Unfair World Escalation from Domestic Violence to Domestic Homicide: Evidence from Police – Recorded Micro- data.	James Hunter and Azrini Wahidin, Nottingham Trent University Rebecca Thompson, Loughborough University Tim Hope, University of Salford Allan Brimicombe, University of East London