

Wednesday 11.30am - 1pm Session 1

	Title of Session	Title of Paper/Book	Name
Panel 1 Room: Laura Jones	Prisons and Penalty Chair: Dominic Kelly	Making the Invisible Visible: Examining the Deaths of Individuals with Mental Health Problems in Differing Forms of State Custody. Gender responsivity: Enabling the logic of women's incarceration? Silent Punishment: The experiences of deaf prisoners. Two Strikes and You're Out: Prison Access, NOMS and the Obstacles to New Knowledge.	Carly Speed, Liverpool John Moores University Gillian McNaull, Queens University Belfast Laura Kelly, University of Central Lancashire Toni Wood, The University of Salford
Panel 2 Room: Chandler	Youth justice Chair: Rachel Morris	A national youth justice system? Differential justice in England and Wales. The Juvenile Justice System in India: Experiences of Children in Conflict with the Law. Socio Economic Deprivation, Institutional Outlay And The Intent Of Mobile Snatching And Street Assaults In Pakistan. Developing a Collaborative Approach to Evaluating Youth Offending Services in Wales.	Damon Briggs, University of Liverpool Jaya Ghosh, Lancaster University Asad Salahuddin, Lahore School of Economics Gemma Morgan, Swansea University
Panel 3 Room: Thornton	State power, marginalisation and 'othering' Chair: Anna Sergi	The Status of Indigenous Women in Policing. The counter-hegemonic potential of a green state-corporate criminology rooted in human rights: the case of indigenous peoples in the Canadian oil sands. Policing as 'human abattoir'? The implications of police brutality on the 'police-community partnership' option for crime control in Nigeria. 'We are human beings': Listening to African-Australian experiences of policing.	Sheena Fleming, Griffith University James Heydon, University of Sheffield Aminu Audu, University of Liverpool Tallace Bissett, University of Melbourne

Wednesday 1.45pm - 3.15pm Session 2

	Title of Session	Title of Paper/Book	Name
Panel 4	Differentiated Justice: Thinking critically about gender	Prison to Liberation- A Feminist account on the experiences of female carers, from parental incarceration to re-entry	Maria Adams, University of West of Scotland
Room:	Chair: Charlotte Barlow	Gender Outlaw Cops: A Study of Transgender Constables' Experiences within England and Wales	Heather Panter, Cardiff University
Chandler		Reclaiming the Metropole: Liverpool Female Penitentiary (1809-1921)	Kirsty Greenwood, Liverpool John Moores
		Time on a Curfew: Exploring Women's Experiences of Electronic Monitoring	Ella Holdsworth, University of Leeds
Panel 5	Policing	Keeping the wheel on: Front line police officers' experiences of excessive demand and the strategies they deploy to cope.	Angela Marinari, University of Portsmouth
Room:	Chair: Anna Sergi	Policing for a Better Britain – a critique.	Ian Shannon QPM, University of Liverpool
Thornton		Policing Public Disorder During the Twelfth of July here in Northern Ireland	Kevin Taggart, University of Ulster
		Changing the Beat? Workforce Trends in Neighbourhood Policing, Austerity and Localised Services.	Jack Greig-Midlane, Cardiff University

Wednesday 3.15pm - 4.30pm Session 3

	Title of Session	Title of Paper/Book	Name
Panel 6 Room: Chandler	Controlling borders: criminalisation, space and place Chair: Linda Asquith	Closed-circuit, closed-space: the impact of CCTV cameras and intergenerational othering. In my Liverpool home: Entitlement to home city space in the post-Capital of Culture climate. Addition by Subtraction? Re-thinking the 'resistance' politics of parkour and freerunning and its potential for criminological analyses of young people, deviance, and urban space.	Caitlin Overington, University of Melbourne Clare Kinsella, Edge Hill University/The University of Liverpool Thomas Raymen, Durham University
Panel 7 Room: Thornton	Welfare, and criminalisation under austerity Chair: Damon Briggs	Social provision in times of exception: the arrival of penal-welfare through conservative modernization in Brazil. Social Prisons: The Criminalisation of Welfare under the UK's 'Work Programme'. An Exploration of Society's Containment of Marginalized Populations.	David S. Fonseca, New York University John David Jordan, Manchester Metropolitan University Gillian McNaull, Queens University Belfast
Panel 8 Room: Laura Jones	Quantitative Methods Chair: Dominic Kelly	Using SEM to model offending development with area effects. A Multilevel Approach to the Analysis of the Effects of Community Mechanisms on Violent Victimization and Perception of Crime Repeat Victimization and the Global Crime Drop	Jack Cunliffe, London School of Economics Liliana Manzano, The University of Edinburgh Dainis Ignatans, University of Kent

Wednesday 4.45pm - 6pm Session 4

	Title of Session	Title of Paper/Book	Name
Panel 9 Room: Chandler	Jurisprudence, criminality and regulation Chair: Rachel Morris	An analysis of Schedule 21 and its operation. The Punitive Effect of Victim-Focused Discourse on Criminal Legislation: Legislative Responses to Child Sexual Abuse in England and Wales and South Korea. Naming and shaming' policies in postmodern era: The case of community notification laws for sex offenders in USA and Greece in light of the available empirical data and criminological theories.	George R. Mawhinney, University of Oxford HYOWON (Nina) KANG, Queen's University Belfast Konstantinos I. Panagos, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, Greece – Visiting Student University of Oxford
Panel 10 Room: Thornton	Organised and white-collar crime Chair: Anna Sergi	The governance of organised crime in Chile. Hearing Both Sides?: Conducting Research on the Role of Legal and Financial Professionals in Criminal Money Management.	Carlos Solar, University of York Katie Benson, University of Manchester

Thursday 9am - 10.30am Session 5

	Title of Session	Title of Paper/Book	Name
Panel 11 Room: Thornton	Regulation and risk: controlling illicit substances Chair: Charlotte Barlow	Time to rethink the criminalization of possessing drugs in Albania. Legal Highs', Drug Control and the Role of Criminologists. Photographs of harm and harm reduction: participatory action research in Hungary The health rights of psychoactive users: How can a human rights lens improve the UK's drug control framework?	Aleks Nikolli, European University of Tirana, Albania. Joseph Ritchie, University of Manchester Camille Stengel, University of Kent and ELTE University Melissa Louise Bone, University of Manchester
Panel 12 Room: Chandler	Desistance and probation Chair: Linda Asquith	Denying the deniers? An examination of probation service supervision of sex offenders in denial. A study of desistance, self change and negotiation through education. The Sound of Silence in Probation Research: the unspoken research method. "I'm abstinent from crime and all that": The role of addiction recovery services in promoting desistance from crime	Jill Dealey, University of Portsmouth David Honeywell, University of York Christopher Kay, University of Manchester Carole Murphy, St. Mary's University