Programme of orientation events

Hello International! is your orientation programme, delivered by International Advice and Guidance. It is designed to help you settle in and make new friends. It also provides you with all the information you need to know to make the most of your time here.

Monday 18 September
9.30am
Hello International! orientation, Mountford Hall, Liverpool Guild of Students. Essential information you need to know as a new international student plus a big ‘Hi!’ from International Advice and Guidance. If the session is full, please attend the repeat session below.

10.30am
Hello International! , Mountford Hall, Liverpool Guild of Students (Repeat session). See above for details.

4pm
In the Mix: socialising in the UK, Central Teaching Hub, Lecture Theatre B (Building No.221 on Campus Map). Being a successful student is about so much more than just studying! This session will give you information on socialising in a new country, making friends and adjusting to life in the UK.

4pm
Scouse 101: an entertaining journey through Liverpool history, language and culture (theatre presentation), Stanley Theatre, Liverpool Guild of Students. Come along to this performance by a local theatre group and learn about the history of Liverpool, the “scouse” accent and the local culture.

Tuesday 19 September
4pm
Liverpool on a Budget, Central Teaching Hub, lecture Theatre B (Building No.221 on Campus Map). Local money-saving tips and ideas on how to manage your money.

Wednesday 20 September
1pm
Introduction to British Culture, Central Teaching Hub, Lecture Theatre C (Building no. 221 on campus map) Come along to this informal session if you want to learn all about our British culture from politics to how we like our personal space and queuing! We will also give you tips on how to adapt to life in the UK.

4pm
Scouse 101: an entertaining journey through Liverpool history, language and culture (theatre presentation), Stanley Theatre, Liverpool Guild of Students. See above for details.

Thursday 21 September
10am – 4pm
Liverpool Guild Welcome Fair, Liverpool Guild of Students. Everything the University and the Liverpool Guild of Students has to offer, all under one roof! Find a society for the things you are interested in, or join one you have never heard of and find something new to love!

Continued over...
Thursday 21 September
(continued)

1-2pm
"Nice to meet EU", our welcome session for European students, Central Teaching Hub, Lecture Theatre D (campus map ref 221). If you are from inside the EU come along to meet the team and learn about what you can do whilst inside the UK alongside your studies. We will also be able to provide you with information about EEA registration certificates and registration cards as well as Brexit of course!

4pm
Working During Your Studies, Central Teaching Hub, Lecture, Theatre B (Building No.221 on Campus Map). Presented jointly by the IAG and the University’s Career and Employability Service, this session will tell you everything you need to know about finding part-time work in the UK

Friday 22 September

10am – 4pm
Liverpool Guild Welcome Fair, Liverpool Guild of Students.
This is the second day of the Welcome Fair. See overleaf for details.

1-2pm
Under 18s session, Studnet Services Centre, Alsop Building No. 750 on Campus Map.
We know that for some younger students, being in a new university, in a new city and a new country may be a little daunting! This session is designed to give additional specialist information and support for students who are aged under 18.

4pm
Improving your English, Central Teaching Hub, Lecture Theatre B (Building no.221 on Campus Map).
If English is not your first language, this session will give you tips on how to improve your English and information on local conversation groups.

Monday 25 September

6.30pm
Hello International! Welcome Dinner, Mountford Hall, Liverpool Guild of Students.
To mark the end of Welcome Week and the beginning of your studies at the University of Liverpool, join us for an exclusive dinner in the Liverpool Guild of Students. Good food, prizes, and entertainment are on offer. A fantastic way to meet your new life-long friends and start the next chapter of your life in style! This event is free but you must book online from Monday 19th September 2016. Further details available during Welcome Week.

Tuesday 26 September

6.30pm
Hello International! Welcome Dinner, Mountford Hall, Liverpool Guild of Students.
If you miss out on Monday, don't worry we will hold another dinner on Tuesday 26th September, more good food, prizes and entertainment!