Study ABROAD

Where will your degree take you?
At the University of Liverpool, we believe in helping students to become international graduates and global citizens. By developing a wide range of employability skills our graduates are well placed to succeed in their professional lives. To support our students in gaining such invaluable skills, we offer a fantastic range of study abroad opportunities – this could be one of the most exciting decisions of your academic career.

At the University of Liverpool, there are loads of opportunities for you to experience new cultures, graduate with an excellent degree and boost your employability through studying abroad! Study Abroad gives you the chance to spend either a part of your Liverpool degree or some of your summer vacation abroad. We have lots of awesome partner universities and exciting programmes to choose from. The options available depend on your degree subject.
So, where will your degree take you?

What is Study Abroad?

At the University of Liverpool, there are loads of opportunities for you to experience new cultures, graduate with an excellent degree and boost your employability through studying abroad! Study Abroad gives you the chance to spend either a part of your Liverpool degree or some of your summer vacation abroad. We have lots of awesome partner universities and exciting programmes to choose from. The options available depend on your degree subject.

So, where will your degree take you?

Semester Abroad
- Spend a semester at one of our amazing partner universities around the world, usually during your second year, studying modules from your subject area
- Study in Europe, Australasia, North America or Asia!
- This option does not add any extra time to your degree and is credit bearing (ie it counts towards your Liverpool degree).

Year in China
- Add an extra year on to your degree programme and study at Xi’an Jiaotong-Liverpool University (XJTLU)
- Discover Chinese culture, politics and history and learn Chinese language.

Summer Abroad
- Do something different with your summer holiday and study at one of our partner universities
- Opportunities available in Asia, North America, Australia and Europe.

Clinical Rotations
- Certain Health and Life Science programmes enable students to spend one of their clinical rotations at a partner university in Europe and beyond.

Study abroad is everything I wanted it to be and more.

It’s Good to Know…

- You don’t need to speak a foreign language to study abroad.
- You are still eligible for Student Finance funding.
- Grants and scholarships are available.
- You’ll be supported by Liverpool and your host university while you’re away.

Study Abroad is an adventure of a lifetime, but it is more than just travelling and seeing the world. There are so many reasons why you should add studying abroad to your list of things to do whilst at university.

Here are just a few:

Academic benefits
- Students who study abroad are more likely to graduate with a First or 2:1*
- You will have the chance to broaden your academic horizons and study modules not taught at Liverpool
- Students report that they are much more motivated when returning to Liverpool for their final year of study.

Employability benefits
- Only 7% of UK students study abroad so you will automatically stand out from the crowd
- You are more likely to be in work or further study six months after graduating if you have studied abroad*
- You will develop key transferable skills such as communication, time-management, cultural awareness and problem solving.

Personal benefits
- Research confirms that Study Abroad enhances personal qualities such as emotional resilience, confidence and determination
- By combining study and travel, studying abroad is a great alternative to a gap year
- It is an invaluable opportunity to discover more about yourself and meet friends for life from all over the world!

Gone International: Expanding Opportunities (May 2018)

I’ve seen my degree subject in a whole new light by studying at another university.

Travelling around my host country and beyond has totally expanded my horizons and made me far more culturally aware.

By moving halfway across the world I’ve learnt so many important skills, I’m loads more resilient, confident and way better at problem solving!

I know I’ll be able to talk about my experience and all the skills I’ve learnt in job interviews when I graduate.
Throughout your study abroad journey the Study Abroad Team is here to help. We are here to support students before, during and after your international experience and we offer loads of services and events for you to find out more and connect with us. Here’s what your journey may look like…

- Come to our Study Abroad Fair to get started
- Attend a Study Abroad 101 session to learn more
- Apply for your preferred programme/s by the relevant deadline dates
- Book your flights and start your adventure!
- Receive your offer and join us at a celebration event to meet other students heading abroad
- Make the most of your Study Abroad experience, enjoy every minute
- Return to Liverpool and come along to the #AlwaysInternational welcome back event
- Apply to be a Study Abroad Ambassador
- Attend our preparation events, pre-application and pre-departure briefings
- Become a Study Abroad Buddy and share your experiences with future students!
How DO I APPLY?

As Study Abroad is such an amazing opportunity our programmes are becoming increasingly popular, so we can’t guarantee that every student who applies will be offered a place. However, we always do our best to offer places to as many students as possible who meet the eligibility requirements.

Making an application
Submit your application online liverpool.ac.uk/study-abroad/outbound/apply/
Applications will open on the day of the Study Abroad Fair on 25 October 2019.

Deadline for Semester Abroad / Year in China applications: 16 February 2020

Deadline for Summer Abroad applications: 11 March 2020

Programme eligibility requirements
The requirements for each type of Study Abroad option differ. Take a look at the table below for further information and don’t forget to check our online search tool for the opportunities/partner universities available to you liverpool.ac.uk/study-abroad/outbound/search/

Application Hints and Tips
Here in the Study Abroad Team we read lots of applications so if you are thinking of applying here are a few of our hints and tips on how to write an engaging and successful application:

- Come to one of our events such as the Study Abroad Fair or Study Abroad 101 to find out more! Your application will receive five extra marks if you attend one of our events
- Research your chosen universities thoroughly, think about: cultural experience, cost of living, accommodation. Use the information on our website as your starting point liverpool.ac.uk/goabroad
- Reflect on the research you have done and tell us why you have chosen a particular programme/partner university
- Tell us what you think you will gain from studying abroad, whether that’s personally, academically or both.

Deciding to study abroad has been without-a-doubt one of the best decisions of my life. It has shaped me as a person and completely changed my outlook on life, I would recommend it to anyone.

We want to ensure that finances aren’t a barrier to you studying abroad. Here’s a breakdown of everything you need to know about financing your international adventure.

Tuition fees
The great news is you don’t pay tuition fees to your host university (apart from any fee-paying summer programmes you choose to participate in). You only pay tuition fees to the University of Liverpool.

Additional fees
Although you don’t pay tuition fees to your host university, you may be required to pay some additional fees such as mandatory health insurance costs or application fees depending on your host university. Check the partner university profiles on our website for more information liverpool.ac.uk/study-abroad/outbound/search

Student Finance
You are still eligible for all of your usual tuition fee and maintenance loans from Student Finance. You may also be eligible for further funding from Student Finance in the form of a travel grant.

Liverpool Go Abroad Grant
Thanks to the generosity of alumni and donors to the University, we are able to provide funding to all students participating in a non-Erasmus+ funded mobility through the Study Abroad Team. Funding amounts are the same for Year in China and Semester Abroad. Our awards are means-tested and awarded as follows:

- Semester Abroad and Year in China
  - Students with a household income of £25,000 and under who also meet the University’s Widening Participation (WP) Flag criteria: £1,000
  - Students with a household income of £25,000 and under who don’t meet the University’s WP Flag criteria: £750

Summer Abroad
- Students with a household income of £35,000 and under: £500
- All other students: £250.

Scholarship opportunities
There are also a lot of scholarship opportunities which you can apply for to help fund your study abroad journey.

For more information about funding, means testing and scholarships please see our website liverpool.ac.uk/study-abroad/outbound/funding

Erasmus+ funding
At the time of publication, the UK is still part of the EU’s Erasmus+ exchange programme. The University hopes that the UK will remain a member of Erasmus+ after Brexit, and that students will continue to be entitled to Erasmus+ funding for mobility in Europe which is approximately currently EUR 300 per month.

- Students with a household income of between £25,001 and £35,000: £500
- All other students: £250.

Where will I live while I’m abroad? is one of the most common questions students have about studying abroad. Here is some useful information about accommodation abroad and in Liverpool.

Accommodation Abroad

Accommodation at partner universities varies greatly. At some partners, it is mandatory for Study Abroad students to live on campus whereas other partners do not offer any university affiliated accommodation. Our online search tool (liverpool.ac.uk/study-abroad/outbound/search/) provides basic information about accommodation options at our partner universities including whether or not accommodation is guaranteed for Study Abroad students.

The Study Abroad Team can give basic advice on finding accommodation abroad, however, your host university will provide lots of guidance and support in finding a place to live in your new country.

Accommodation in Liverpool

Study Abroad Village
If you participate in the Semester Abroad programme, you can apply for a room in university accommodation for the semester you stay in Liverpool. The Study Abroad Village (Tudor Close and Melville Grove), is a fantastic and straightforward accommodation option for Semester Abroad students. You have the benefit of a one-semester contract and you will live with other outbound Study Abroad students and our inbound exchange students from all over the world! What better way to continue your international journey?

Dover Court
All offers to study abroad are made in March. This is often a concern for students who are keen to make accommodation arrangements for their next year of study before study abroad offers are issued. We want to ensure that you have as many accommodation options as possible to suit your needs.

In case your application to study abroad is unsuccessful, you can apply for a room in University halls of residence (Dover Court – home to Year 2, 3 and 4 students) as a back-up

If your application to study abroad is successful, you can withdraw from your Dover Court contract without incurring any financial penalties

If you are awarded a study abroad place, your housing application will automatically transfer over to the Study Abroad Village for a semester only contract (subject to availability), all you have to do is accept the offer.

Please note that rooms in Dover Court are allocated on a first come first served basis so you are encouraged to apply as early as possible to make sure you do have an accommodation option. You can apply for all University of Liverpool accommodation options via your Liverpool Life account.

My only advice to anyone contemplating studying abroad would be DO IT! I have gained so much life experience and truly feel more mature and better equipped to tackle the rest of my studies in Liverpool.

Do you want to see the world and discover new cultures? Completing a semester abroad is an awesome opportunity to combine your studies with the adventure of a lifetime!

With the Semester Abroad you get to study your subject area at one of our partner universities around the world. One of the advantages of a semester abroad is that it doesn’t add any extra time onto your degree.

Where can I go?
Where you can go depends on your degree, as our partner universities match with specific subject areas. Check out our online search tool to find out where your degree can take you liverpool.ac.uk/study-abroad/outbound/search/

When do I go?
If you are doing a three-year degree programme, or one that includes a Year in Industry/Research, you’ll go abroad in your second year of study. If you are doing a four-year degree you’ll go abroad in your third year of study. Don’t forget that you apply during your preceding year of study so make sure you don’t miss the deadline!

I just knew deep down that I had to go and see the world and it was the best decision I have ever made, just taking that chance has fundamentally changed me and I am so grateful. Seeing the world makes you more interested. I’ve come back and I want to apply all this knowledge and contribute to the world way more than I did before.

Clinical Rotations
If you are studying Veterinary Science, Physiotherapy or Occupational Therapy you can complete one of your clinical rotations at a partner university. Like the Semester Abroad, this doesn’t add any extra time onto your degree. Year in China is our unique and incredibly exciting flagship Study Abroad programme. Since its launch in 2015, over 300 students have participated in this life-changing programme. The Year in China is designed to offer as many students as possible the opportunity to embark on an adventure of a lifetime!

What is the Year in China and what will I study?
The Year in China is an unmissable opportunity to broaden your horizons and gain an understanding of this amazing country. It adds an extra year onto your degree which you will spend at our joint venture university Xi’an Jiaotong-Liverpool University (XJTLU). It’s your chance to study something completely different from your regular field of study.

You will study
- Chinese language
- China studies
- Depending on your academic department, a module relating to your degree programme.

If you pass the Year in China, your degree title will change to “BA/BSc subject with a Year in China”.

When do I go?
Students can either participate in the programme after your second or final year of study. If you go after your final year of study, you complete your Liverpool degree as normal but delay your graduation in order to study in China.

Why go on the Year in China?

The British Council identified Mandarin as the fourth most important language when it comes to the UK’s future.

Studying and living in China is much cheaper than in most other countries.

Stand out from the crowd! Your degree programme will change to “BA Subject with a Year in China”.

Discover dynamic modern China, starting with the ultra-modern XJTLU campus, only 30 minutes from Shanghai by bullet train.

Learn about ancient China too, XJTLU is located in Suzhou one of the ancient Chinese capitals.

Ensure you take this opportunity to travel around this incredible country and beyond.

When I embarked on the Year in China I had no idea it was going to be the best year of my life.

Not sure you want to commit to a longer period abroad? Want to make the most of your summer? Then why not spend a summer abroad!

Why do it?

Summer Abroad is a brilliant opportunity to do something fun and useful with your vacation. Research undertaken by Universities UK highlights that it doesn’t matter where you study abroad or for how long, the experience is still hugely beneficial. So whether you spend two weeks or six weeks of your summer holiday studying at a partner university, you’ll develop all the skills of a Study Abroad graduate.

How does it work?

We have loads of exciting Summer Abroad opportunities open to all students and some that are specific to students from certain academic departments. You can apply for a tuition free place at one of our partner universities. Places are limited and we prioritise students from low-income households for these spots, but if you aren’t awarded a place you can still apply for a programme and pay tuition fees to participate.

My experience at BI has benefited me in more ways than I ever imagined. I have come out the other end with much more confidence in my capabilities and a more open-minded approach to life.

Where can I go on Summer Abroad?

There are more opportunities than ever before to spend a summer abroad. This year alone the Team is launching three brand new Summer Abroad opportunities in France, Australia and Hong Kong! (see page 23). We also have well established opportunities in Canada, USA, China, Malaysia and Europe. For more information and a full list of Summer Abroad opportunities open to you, check our search tool liverpool.ac.uk/study-abroad/outbound/search/
This year the Study Abroad Team is excited to launch three brand new summer abroad opportunities! Don’t miss out on the chance to take part in these unique programmes in three incredible destinations.

Summer in France at Université Jean Moulin Lyon 3*
Immerse yourself in French language and culture on this six week summer programme in the beautiful and historic city of Lyon. You will have the opportunity to learn French, understand French culture and take part in trips and excursions. This programme is funded thanks to grant funding from Santander.

Summer in Australia at Charles Darwin University*
Have the summer adventure of a lifetime and take part in this amazing Australian Summer Abroad opportunity! This eight day study tour explores the nature and contemporary expression of the unique, strong and enduring relationship between Australian Indigenous people, their cultures and the natural environment. The programme also includes an incredible four day field excursion to Kakadu National Park! This programme is funded thanks to grant funding from Santander.

Summer in Hong Kong at the University of Hong Kong*
Thanks to the generosity of University of Liverpool alumni and donors, we’re excited to launch a brand new fully funded Summer Abroad opportunity at the University of Hong Kong! 20 students will take part in the programme, which will showcase Hong Kong’s unique position as a meeting point of the East and West and a global business hub. We’ll also have opportunities to explore contemporary issues in Hong Kong, take part in company visits and network with UoL alumni based in Hong Kong.

*These opportunities are subject to final approval.

My summer abroad at UGA has given me the unique opportunity to meet new people and learn about American culture, race and diversity. Everyone that I met made me feel welcome and it has been an experience that I’ll never forget as I have gained so many lovely memories that I will forever cherish.

How does the University choose its exchange partners?
We’ve chosen our exchange partners because, like Liverpool, they’re highly ranked by independent bodies, and well regarded for their innovative approaches to research and teaching. We have been commended for our rigorous approval process of new exchange partners. Our processes ensure that our students studying abroad have an excellent academic experience and are fully supported at the partner university.

Will studying abroad extend the time it takes a student to complete their degree?
With the exception of the Year in China, Study Abroad programmes do not extend a student’s degree.

What support will students receive during their exchange programme?
When a student goes on an exchange, they remain a registered student with us as well as becoming a fully registered student at the partner university. This means they can access all the support services (academic and personal) at both universities. All of our partners have an equivalent Study Abroad Team who will act as the first point of contact whilst our students are abroad.

What fees will students pay to an exchange partner?
Our students don’t have to pay tuition fees to the host university (apart from fee-paying summer programmes), but they will have to pay accommodation fees. Some universities require mandatory health insurance. Summer programmes may incur some tuition fee costs. For further information on money matters please see pages 10 and 11.

Why is studying abroad a good thing to do?
There are lots of brilliant reasons why Study Abroad is such a fantastic experience. Study Abroad can be a great alternative to taking a gap year in order to see the world. By combining study and travel, participants will get to meet new people and have fun, but, more than this, students will have an excellent achievement to add to their CV and a whole range of skills and experiences to talk about in job interviews. Studying abroad provides an opportunity for students to broaden their academic horizons and gain a different perspective to a subject area by studying modules different to those offered here at Liverpool.

How can parents/supporters help students on their Study Abroad journey?
Study Abroad is an empowering experience that should be embraced by students in every aspect – from initial enquiry, through to choosing a destination and getting on the plane. We advise parents/supporters to encourage students to do as much research as possible about their chosen programme and destination. The more prepared students are, the more successful their experience turns out to be. If students have questions regarding any aspect of Study Abroad we encourage parents to ask their son/daughter to contact the Study Abroad Team. We are here to help students become independent, confident individuals through this life-changing experience.
Meet The Team

We are here to make your Study Abroad dream come true! We are all passionate about what we do and we truly believe that Study Abroad is one of the best opportunities you will have here at the University of Liverpool. The Team is here to support you along your Study Abroad journey and we have all either lived, studied or worked abroad so we know exactly what it’s like!

Nia
Study Abroad Manager (Outbound)
Hi, I’m Nia and as part of my modern languages degree I studied abroad in Italy and France. During my time abroad I got to travel, eat incredible food and meet some amazing people. I also learnt so much about myself and I can honestly say it helped shape me into the person I am today. I want to make sure every student knows about the amazing Study Abroad opportunities available and help you start your adventure!

Josh
Study Abroad Co-ordinator (Outbound)
Hi I’m Josh, I graduated from Sheffield Hallam University with a BSc in Events Management and Tourism. While at University I worked at a summer camp in Maryland, USA, and had the opportunity to visit many other states on the east coast. After graduating I returned to the States to work in Disney World Florida which was an amazing experience. There’s no better time to travel than when you are a student and I can’t wait to help you along your Study Abroad journey!

Rachel
Study Abroad Assistant
Hi, I’m Rachel and during my second year of my Sociology degree here at the University of Liverpool I studied for 6 months in Wellington, New Zealand. During my time abroad, as well as studying in a fantastic city, I travelled around New Zealand and even took a trip to Fiji during Easter half term. It was such a huge step for me but it was definitely the best decision I have ever made. I would love to help you take advantage of the Study Abroad opportunities on offer!
