The Student Services Centre with our entire support network to help you.

accommodation facilities have provided a first-class learning and living environment for our students. What we offer is more than a place to live; it is a community where you can thrive.

Our libraries are the first to open 24 hours a day during the week, a service which remains constant throughout the academic year. Our three on-campus libraries, the Sydney Jones Library and the Harold Cohen Library have over 12 million books, a large portfolio of around 300,000 electronic journals, extensive special collections, such as the largest Science Fiction collection in Europe, plus many rare books and manuscripts. The expansion of our learning spaces and improvement of the academic provision at our campus are now available on campus off Mount Pleasant, towards the city centre.

Planned regeneration at the city centre and the university.

The University of Liverpool is a leading and research-intensive institution. As the original 'redbrick' university, we were the first to open departments in Architecture, Biochemistry and Civic Design, and the first university in Britain to appoint chairs in Dentistry, Oceanography, Orthopaedic Surgery, and the Institution of Architects. We provide an outstanding teaching and learning experience, undertaken within a culture of research excellence, where student talent is both nurtured and celebrated.

For Car Park,

Go ing to university isn’t just about meeting new people, finding your independence and establishing your new life. It is also about new friendships and opportunities to learn and grow. The University of Liverpool is a welcoming and friendly place to study, with a vibrant mix of nationalities and cultures. We have over 80,000 students from all over the world, and we are proud to offer a truly international education experience.

The University of Liverpool is a globally renowned university with a rich history of achievement. We have been ranked in the top 1% of universities worldwide by the Times Higher Education World University Rankings, and are proud to be a member of the Russell Group of leading research-intensive universities. We are also a member of the University of Liverpool Global Group, which works to promote and support the development of international students and researchers.

The Student Services Centre offers a wide range of services to support your needs, including academic advice, financial guidance, and health and welfare support. Our experienced staff are here to help you navigate your time at university, and we are committed to ensuring you have a positive and successful experience.

The University of Liverpool is located in a beautiful and historic city, with a rich cultural and sporting heritage. We are proud to be part of a city that is steeped in tradition and innovation, and we are committed to helping you make the most of your time here.

We hope you enjoy your time at the University of Liverpool, and we look forward to welcoming you to our community.
Victoria Gallery & Museum

The Victoria Gallery & Museum in Liverpool is one of the largest art museums in the UK. It houses a vast collection of art, including a significant number of works by British artists. The museum features a variety of exhibitions and events throughout the year, attracting visitors from all over the world.

Abercromby Square

Abercromby Square is a significant landmark in Liverpool, named after Sir John Abercromby, a governor of Liverpool. The square was designed by Sir Thomas Robinson and was completed in 1820. It is a fine example of Georgian architecture and is located in the heart of Liverpool's city centre.

Central Campus

The Central Campus of Liverpool University is the hub of the university's academic and administrative activities. It is home to several departments and faculties, including the Faculty of Law and the Faculty of Business and Management. The campus is also home to a variety of facilities, such as the Central Library, the Students' Union, and the Sports Complex.

South Campus

South Campus is one of the main campuses of Liverpool University, located in the city's southern area. It is home to several faculties and departments, including the Faculty of Social Sciences and the Faculty of Education. The campus is known for its modern facilities and state-of-the-art teaching spaces.

Veterinary Science

The University of Liverpool's School of Veterinary Science was established in 1890 and is one of the most innovative and pioneering veterinary teaching schools in the UK. The school has been subject to extensive investment and refurbishment, which included the establishment of the Veterinary Teaching Suite (VTS), providing the students with a state-of-the-art facility that is designed to meet the needs of modern veterinary education.

Lancashire Aquatic Centre

The Lancashire Aquatic Centre is a state-of-the-art facility located on the Central Campus. It is home to a range of aquatic facilities, including a 50m Olympic pool, a 25m training pool, and a children's pool. The centre is open to both students and the public and is a popular destination for those looking to swim or exercise.

North Campus

North Campus is one of the main campuses of Liverpool University, located in the city's northern area. It is home to several faculties and departments, including the Faculty of Engineering and the Faculty of Life Sciences. The campus is known for its modern facilities and state-of-the-art teaching spaces.

Engineering

The Engineering faculty at Liverpool University offers a wide range of undergraduate and postgraduate programmes in engineering disciplines. The faculty is home to several research centres and laboratories, including the Centre for Materials Research, which is one of the largest and most prestigious in the UK.

Central Teaching Laboratories (CTL)

The Central Teaching Laboratories (CTL) is a state-of-the-art facility located on the South Campus. It is home to a range of teaching spaces, including lecture theatres, seminar rooms, and workshops. The CTL is designed to meet the needs of modern teaching and learning, providing state-of-the-art facilities for both students and staff.