

Social Policy

Year One

Semester 1 Semester 2

Social Change and Social Policy in Contemporary Society 1 & 2
Optional Module(s)
+ 60 credits from joint honours subject

Year Two

Semester 1 Semester 2

Social Exclusion	Comparing Welfare States
Optional Module(s)
+ 60 credits from joint honours subject

Year Three

Semester 1 Semester 2

Dissertaion/Interchange Portfolio* or 2x Optional Modules
Optional Module	Optional Module
+ 60 credits from joint honours subject

Studying at '50%' (joint honours) leads to a BA in another subject and Social Policy

Social Change and Social Policy in Contemporary Society
+ 90 credits from major subject

Social Exclusion	Comparing Welfare States
+ 90 credits from major subject

Optional Module	Optional Module
+ 90 credits from major subject

Studying at '25%' (a 'minor') leads to a BA in another subject with Social Policy

Example Optional Modules**

Sociological Theory
Studying Society
Introduction to Crime and Society	Controlling Crime: An Introduction

Understanding Non-Profit Organisations: Work-Based Learning	Migration, Borders, and Belonging
Quantitative Social Research	Qualitative Social Research
Culture, Power, and Social Change	Gender, Sexuality & Everyday Life
Thinking Sociologically

Dissertation or Interchange Portfolio*
Health, Lifecourse, and Society	Short Interchange Project
Social Control and the City	Gender, The Body, and Identity
Gender and Welfare State	Madness, Disability, and Society
Class and Everyday Life	Race, Community, and Identity

*The Dissertation and Interchange Portfolio are only available to those students who elect to undertake Social Research modules at Year 2

**Please note that this is a non-exhaustive and indicative list of suitable options. The full list of modules on offer as options is subject to change on a yearly basis.