

Department of Sociology, Social Policy and Criminology

Entry Requirements

These courses require GCSE English and Maths 4

QUALIFICATION	TYPICAL OFFER
A Levels	BBB Applicants may only offer ONE of the following A Levels:- General Studies OR Citizenship Studies OR Critical Thinking
Scottish Higher/Advanced Higher	BBB
International Baccalaureate	30 Points with no score less than 4
Irish Leaving Certificate	A1 B1 B1 B1
BTEC	DDM with 100 out of 180 Credits at Distinction
Access to HE Diploma	In a relevant subject including Distinctions in Units in Social Science (Sociology, Psychology, Politics, History, Economics, Philosophy or Law) 45 Level 3 credits in graded units in a relevant Diploma, including 27 at Distinction and a further 15 with at least Merit.
14-19 Advanced Diploma	All lines except Hair and Beauty Studies. Principal and Generic Learning Grade B required. Extended Project Grade B required. Additional and specialist learning A Level Politics, Psychology, Sociology, History, Economics, Law or Human Geography Grade B required.
Advanced Welsh Baccalaureate	Accepted including BB at A Level