Earth Sciences Field Activity

Field excursion to West Kirby with academic staff, PhD students and Year 2 & 3 undergraduate students. In small groups, you will visit several Earth Science ‘research stations’ to discuss a particular scientific topic close to the heart of the leading academic staff member. This is a great opportunity to quiz the expert! The movement around stations will be quick-fire to ensure that you stay on the move and keep those toes warm.

Location: West Kirby (Further details will be given during the Meet Your Programme Director sessions on Tuesday 19th September).

Equipment: You will need warm and waterproof clothing and suitable footwear for a wet sandy beach; preferably walking boots.

Attendance compulsory

University-Wide Events

There are a number of Welcome Week sessions taking place around campus that you are welcome to attend. The events and activities on offer aim to provide you with a foundation to ensure you gain maximum benefit from your time at Liverpool. Other events and activities are designed to introduce you to University life and to help you to get to know the campus. Attendance at these events is voluntary.

You can find details of all University Welcome events here.

Please be aware that attendance at Departmental events (listed above) is mandatory, so before attending University-Wide events, please ensure that you are not expected to be at a session hosted by your School.
